To Whom It May Concern:

I am a student from  school in . I chose to do a report on your state. I am wondering if Connecticut is the smallest state in the United States? Is Hartford a big city or small city? Is Mount Frissell at 2,380 feet tall actually the highest point over there? Is Connecticut the oldest state? Your state has always been so interesting to me. Your state is so beautiful. I wish I lived over there. If you could, can you send me some information? My report is due on May 15, 2015 so the quicker the better.

Respectfully,

5th grade student
