'This is to certify that we have tried the Incrustation
Liquid made by Mr Temple of this place, and have found it to perform all that is claimed forit by the patentee,
Our Boiler had a thick scale on it which had accumulated in it for several years and which could not be got at to clean. Two applications have removed the scale entirely and from the parts that were the most thickly coated it has loosened the scale so that it dropped off in flakes and circular, pieces as from the rivet heads and socket bolts in the Furnace part of the Boiler.

From our experience with it, I do not hesitate to re commend it to any one requiring its use.

MR. A. TEMPLE—DEAR SIR:—We have used the Liquid made by Mr. Temple, for removing the scale from Locomotive Boilers. In the Antelope, run by Walter Sterling, it loosened the scale and softened it so that it was readily taken from the hand holes. It did not cause the Boiler to foam until it had softened the scales othat the water became thick, in five or six days, and then we found the legs very full—our water is very bad. It did not injure the Boiler that we could discover—we have put it in four times, one gallon each time, and shall continue the use of it.

TEMALES, owing to the peculiar and important relations which they sustain, their peculiar organization, and the offices they perform, are subject to many sufferings and aliments peculiar to the sex. Freedom from these contributes in no small degree to their happiness and welfare, for none can be happy who are ill. Not only so, but no one of these various female complaints can long be suffered to run on without involving the general health of the individual, and ere long producing permanent sickness sup premature decline. Nor is it peasant to consult a physician for the relief of these various elleate affections, and only upon the most urgent in essity will a true woman so far sacrifice her greate; charm as to do this. The sex will then thank us for placing in their hands simple specifics which will be four tefficacious in releving and curing almost every one of those troublesome complaints peculiar to the

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT OF BUCHU.

Hundreds suffer on in silence, and hundreds of others apply vainly to druggists and doctors, who either merely tantalize them with the hope of a cure or apply remedies which make them worse. I would not wish to assert anything that would do injustice to the afflicted, but I am obliged to say that although it may be produced from excessive exhaustion of the powers of life, by Laborious employment, unwholesome air and food, profuse monstruation, the use of tea and coffee, and frequent childbirth, it is far oftener caused by direct irritation, applied to the mucous membrane of the vagina fiself.

When reviewing the causes of these distresing complaints, it is most painful to contemplate the attendant evils consequent upon them. It is but simple justice to the subject to enumerate a few of the many additional causes which to largely affect the life, health, and happines of woman in all ciasses of society, and which, consequently, affect, more or leas, directly, the welfare of the entire human family. The mania that exists for precocious education and marriage, causes the years that nature designed for corporeal development to be wasted and perverted in the restraints of dress, the early confinement of school, and especially in the unhealthy excitement of the ball-room. Thus, with the body half cothed and the mind unduly excited by pleasare, perverting in midnight revel the hours designed by nature for sleep and rest, the work of destruction is half accomplished.

When one excitement is over, another in prospective keeps the mind morbidly sensitive to impressioh, while the now constant restraint of fashionable dress; absolutely forbidding the exercise indispensable to the attainment and retention of organic health and strength; the exposure to night air; the sudden change of temperature; the complete prostration produced by excessive dancing must, of necessity, produce their legitimate effect. At last, an darly marriage caps the climax of misery, and the unfortunate one, hitherto so utterly regardless of the plain dictates and remonstrances of her delicate nature, becomes an unwilling subject of medical treatment. Long before the ability to exercise the functions of the generative organs, they require an education of their peculiar nervous system; composed of what is called the tissue, which is, in common with the female breast and lips, evidently under the control of mental emotions and associations at an early period of life; and, as we shall subsequently see, these emotions, when excessive, lead, long before puberty, to habits which sap the very life of their victims ere nature has self-completed their development.

[From the N. Y. Journal of Commerce, Oct. 5.] NEGRO SUFFRAGE.

The Republican party in Connecticut has been first in bringing before the public the distinct issue of negro suffrage, and the re-sult has been unmistakably plain. The ballot in Connecticut is very well regulated. There is no universal suffrage. They have the best rule of qualification when properly administered, to wit, the qualification of intelligence. They allow no man to vote who cannot read. How they determine the degree of intelligence we are not informed, but we presume that a voter may be challenged and examined by the inspectors at the polls. It was a very fair case therefore in which to bring the issue forward. It was not proposed to give all negroes the privilege of voting, but to give the ballot to those who were sufficiently educated. The result is a very plain assertion of the people of Conout that theirs at least is a State in which the government is a government of white men. It will not do to rail at this decision. The people of that State are notoriously the most intelligent people in all the United States. There is no State in advance of Connecticut either in education, intellect wealth or civilization. It is true the religion of the State has been falling off of late, but this has not been against the negro equality ideas. On the contrary, the tendency of many churches has been to make ebony idols and worship them. He who has refused to bow down to the new image has been regarded as irreligious. In no State in the Union could a more fair trial be had of the willingness of the people to extend equal political rights to the negro. The Republican party in the last Legislature determined to try the issue. They passed the provision by a strict party vote. For several years they had maintained a popular majority in the State, and no doubt was enrtained among their leading politicians that they would carry this provision, and give to the President a very distinct notice of the intentions and expectations of the party which elected him. The result has en astounding to those who favored the progressive doctrines. In the heart of New England, in a State where the most violent radicalism has been rampant and triumphant | be exhausted. on former occasions, the people emphatically declare that negroes shall not be admitted to equal political power with white men. Let it be remembered that this is a State decision. In this vote we have an instance of the exercise of State sovereignty, the highest exercise of it indeed, since it is a question going to the very foundation of all government among us. It is an interesting and instructive scene just now. No one has thought of requesting President Johnson to interfere and compel Connecticut to give negroes the right of voting. That State is still within a military district, and the writ of Habeas Corpus remains suspended there. But we have not heard of any proposal to proclaim the negroes citizens in full standing, or to compel the adoption of the new plan as a military necessity. On the contrary, it is conceded that neither the General Government nor any State except Connecticut-no, not even Massachusetts-has any right to interfere with the absolute power of Con-necticut to determine who shall vote in that State. So that the doctrine of State rights and State sovereignty over its internal affairs prevails with all men of all parties, notwith-standing the fierce attacks which have been made on these principles. The policy of President Johnson will be sustained by this vote. It will give him great strength with the country at large, and it ought to operate with force on the position of men in Congress this fall. It would certainly be very inconsistent in any member of Congress from Connecticut, were he to take a position in favor of forcing negro suffrage on the Southern States. He might very properly be told to go home and elevate the negroes of his own State to equal social and political rights before attempting to do so in other States. It is highly probable that the result of this election will secure to the President and his policy the support of several members of Congress, who might otherwise have been regarded as doubt'rel.

BAD STATE OF THINGS IN TENNESSEE. Gov. Brownlow's Knoxville. Whig has a long review of the slavery question, in East Tennessee, and the condition of the freed-men. By his account, society there must be in a terrible condition. He complains that "the morals of the colored population are not so good since the ir freedom, as when they were in bond, ge," and adds:

"Thouse and of free colored persons are congres ating in and around the large towns in Tennessee, and thousands are coming in from other States, one-third of whom cannot get employment. Indeed, less than one-third of them want employment, or feel wil-ling to stoop to work. They entertain the erroneous idea that the Government is bound to supply all their wants, and even to furnish them with houses, if in order to do that, the white occupants must be turned out. There is a large demand for labor in every section of the State, but the colored people, with here and there a noble exception, scorn the idea of work. They fiddle and dance at night, and lie around the stores and street corners in the day time. And some of the indiscreet teachers of the negroes from the North, who know nothing of the negro character, have been known to tell them not to hire to white people! Having the single idea in their heads of abolition, they advise the simple and incredulous negro to a life of precarious submistence, of idleness and dancing, and of crowding into the towns to be educated, in preference to good wages and comfortable homes in the country. If some great change is not made, when winter comes on, and if the military force is withdrawn, as they will be, there will be great suffering and fearful mortality among them. There is a bad state of feeling now between them and the whites, and it is daily growing more bitter. Many of the negroes are insulting to white families, who never owned any of their color, and never did them any wrong. They frequently elbow unprotected women off of our narrow pavements, and curse white men Others are sweating on the streets—and we have heard them—that they will clean out the d—d town! And still another class swear, that if they are not allowed their rights at the ballot-box they will resort to the cartridge box! As one desiring the welfare of the colored people, they will permit me to say, that they can't drive the Legislamessee into conferring upon them the elective faanchise. They can, by the demonstrations they are making in this direction, deprive themselves of any such privilege, so far as Tennessee is concerned.

The Federal Government has no right to control the suffrage question in Tennessee; and the great Union party of the Nation will have more sense than to attempt to control the question by Congressional legislation."

VIRGINIA FREEDMEN.

A correspondent of the N. Y. News, writing from Richmond, Va., gives a graphic description of the condition of affairs prevailing there, and thus alludes to the "freedmen" of that portion of the South :-

"It may be inferred that we place little reliance upon the negro, now that he is exempt from the only compulsion which ever succeeded in making nim a working man, capable not only of compet-ing with the white laborer, but of driving him completely from the field. From all parts of the State, the cry is still the same; "the negro behaves well enough, is respectful enough, but he will not work." In the Piedmont districts the negroes are slipping away from their homes, and gathering in squads of ten and fifteen in abandoned homes near he road-sides, where they drive a sort of traffic with the passers by, in chickens and eggs and other odds and ends of eatables, procured no one

"On the Peninsula, between Williamsburg and Hampton, 37,000 negroes are said to be congregated. The secret of this enormous assemblage is ound in the rivers and bays, which at this season of the year yield up their treasures of fish and oys-ters so easily that the laziest contraband on earth can get his day's food by working only half an hour. Here in Richmond the negroes finds a heaven of happiness, and no possible inducement can persuade him to abandon a place where a handsome living may be obtained by satting was can persuade him to abandon a piace where handsome living may be obtained by setting up a rickety table on the sidewalk and displaying thereon a plate of fried fish, a few hoecakes and half a dozen sweet potatoes. It has been estimated that a restaurant of this calibre will sustain, in some inconceivable manner, an entire family, and it is a well known fact that three able-bodled negro men have found employment, and, perhaps, a comfortable maintenance, in selling one horse bucketfulls of lemonade. One negro ladles out the lemonade, another hands it to the purchaser, while the third receives the money, and thus there men and brethren, each of them strong enough to fell an ox, will while away the Summer day merrily and profits-

"When Sunday comes, and sometimes during the week when business hours are over, the sabl merchants delight to air themselves and their dusky dulcineas in an open barouche driven by a white man. This spectacle so pleasing at first, is becoming rather common in Richmond, and the poor whites who cannot afford to ride in barouches are yet querulous enough to complain that the lordly nigger does not treat them to a new sensa tion, and a novel spectacle at least once a week.

ARBITRARY ARRESTS IN IRELAND.

The New York Evening Post (Radical Abolition) does not like the manner in which the British government exercises arbitrary power in Ireland, and declares with becoming indignation that a series of the most arbitrary arrests have been made, of unoffending sub jects-men who have committed no offence known to the laws. It adds :-

"Not content with this highhanded outrage up-on the liberty of the subject, the government has actually suppressed a newspaper in the style of its illustrious ally, Louis Napoleon, preventing the further issue of it, and sending its conductors to a dungeon.

"Thirty-one men have been arrested in Dublin alone! The civil law has been suspended, it is said, in some parts of Ireland; and all this is done
"by order of the Crowa!"

Commenting on these paragraphs, the N. Y. Express observes :-

" Well, all this looks very bad, very mean, very lawless,—but it we remember right, when such outrages were committed here first by Secretary Seward, then by Secretary Stanton, and time and Seward, then by Secretary Stanton, and time and again by military satraps all over the country, the Post took it all as kindly as possible. "There can be no doubt that the country is tired blacks. There must in the nature of things be a reaction to all this—and the Connecticut election indicates that it has begun. How far it will go, or what results it will accomplish, remains to be seen It will probably, at all events, somewhat dampen the ardor of ambitious politicians who have sup-posed ultra devotion to the negro the only winning card, and it may possibly satisfy party leaders that it is not always safe rashly to insert new planks in a party platform."

TAXATION OF GOVERNMENT BONDS.

In a speech in Adams county, Illinois, delivered not long since, ex-senator Richardson, of that State, came out strongly in favor of taxing federal bonds. He claims that there is an overpowering necessity that we should tax these bonds, and that no Congress has the power to limit a subsequent one in reference to taxation. He claims that the Constitution is the only limitation to Congress, and that a Congress two or four years hence can amend, change or repeal a law passed by any prior one, and thus all limitations are no more planted. oinding than a last year's almanac.

A RADICAL OPINION CONCERNING SOUTH CAROLINA PEOPLE.

The South Carolina correspondent of the Boston Advertiser-an earnest Radical, by the way-writes to that journal as follows, respecting the temper of the southern peo-

"It is idle and foolish-more, it is false and cruel to urge or argue that there is danger of further armed resistance to the authority of the government in South Carolina. The argument against the restoration of the State to political fellowship must rest on other grounds. It can rest on other must rest on other grounds. It can rest on other bases without losing any of its strength, too. I know there were a score of ex-confederate officers in the convention. Doesn't that indicate a rebellious spirit? may be queried. For my part, I wish every office in the State could be filled with late rebel officers. It is the universal testimony of every officer of our own troops with whom I have conversed, from the commanding general down, as well as of every northern man two months resident in the State, that the late rebel officers are of better disposition toward the government, toward Northerners, toward progression, than any other class of citizens."

Connecticut and Colorado vote " No: on the question of negro suffrage. Col. Forney, evidently alarmed, writes to the Philadelphia Press from Washington, as follows:

"The convention which nominated Abraham Lincoln and Andrew Johnson, refused to make a national test of the question, and nothing but dis-aster has ever befallen our friends whenever they have departed from it in the States. Let us ad here to what is nominated in the national bond. To go beyond it is to court disaster for no practical, nay for no theoretical good. Above all, let us avoid attempting to force upon the Southern States what we are now once more taught we can-no, even with our better informed colored people, lo ourselves at our own homes.

The New York World alludes to the article in the Hartford Courant just before the election, in which it was said that they were dealing with the "copperhead party' in the negro suffrage issue, and that the opposition manifested was only a wriggle of its tail, as follows :-

The Louisville (Ky.) The Waterbury Chronicle says a most dastardly affair occurred in the town of Wolcott on Thursday of last week, it being the perpetration, by a colored man, of a rape upon a maimed lady. The facts of the case are as follows: Mrs. Amanda N. Waird was just inside of the door of her house, attending to her customary duties, when the colored rascal, Overton Jerome by name, entered and attacked her. Being quite unwell and feeble he quickly overcame her, and accomplished the most dastardly of all human crimes. Horse Deprayity.—There was a sudden decline in flour just in front of the FARMER office, this morning. A staid-looking old gray mare jogging along with a wagon, in which was a driver and a barrel of flour, concluded to lie down rather abruptly. Snap went both of the shafts, like pipe-stems, and pop went the barrel out of the rear of the wagon. After the mischief was done, the old nag couldn't be induced to stand on her pins until all the harness was taken off, when she jumped up so vigorously as to throw the driver, who was holding her by the head, ou the "devil, as big as a woodchuck" was in a gray mare, he fully possessed that one for a few minutes. THE MORNING TRAINS up on the New York and New Haven Railroad were delayed most anno yingly and provokingly by a strike of the drivers who bring the cars from the New York depot to the place where the steam is taken on in that city. The matter will probably be suitably arraged to-day.

A Correction.-The statement in an item which appeared in Saturday's FARMER concerning a prominent Republican of the Eastern Dictrict was furnished by a friend on whose veracity we relied. We have since been informed that it was entirely incorrect, and that the person on whom it reflected, though a strong Republican, was never guilty of so mean an action, being an honorable man, scorning to interfere in any manner with political principles of men in his employ.

MOB VIOLENCE.

There is a very interesting trial before the Superior Court now sitting in this city. It will be recollected that a mob in Bristol assaulted the house of Mr. Carrington last spring, maltreating Mr. C., his hired man, his grandmother, and other inmates of the family, and injuring his furniture and other propthat Mr. Carrington had a "pecesh flag!" flying on his premises, near a pond some distance from his house. The mob carried off this " flag," which was a table-spread; and the leaders, nine of whom were arrested and are now on trial, refuse to re-produce the table-cloth that was stolen on the occasion, and which they aver was the cause of the outrage. A large number of witnesses have been examined, and the case will be concluded, probably, by the time our paper is issued.

There is really but one side to this case. There is a law in Connecticut providing for the punishment of any person who shall display the Confederate flag, and in case Mr. Carrington had violated this law he might have been prosecuted and lawfully punished. No individual or mob in Bristol, however, had any right to destroy his property and maltreat the inmates of his family even though he had violated the law. A mob is an unlawful assemblage, and cannot be justified, but should be punished when they destroy property and mutilate the bodies of persons. But in the case of Mr. Carrington he had displayed no Confederate flag or other emblem of rebellion or revolution, and he had violated no law. For the welfare of society, we are glad that the proper authorities in Bristol have taken the lawful course to punish the leaders of that disgraceful mob which disturbed the peace of the town, and invaded the rights of a private family, injuring the persons of females and wantonly destroying property.—Hartford Times, 6th.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

PIT HOLE, Oct. 9. The most destructive conflagration that ever took place in the oil regions, occurred about 1 o'clock this morning. The tanks of the largest flowing well, one known as the Grant, containing 4,000 barrels of oil, caught fire, spreading destruction in all directions. Thirteen derricks and engine houses on the following leases were destroyed:-Nos. 16 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22 and 23, on the Horinder Farm, and Nos. 2, 4 and 5, on the Money Farm, covering a surface of five acres. The total loss will reach $150,000. All of the oil belonged to the owners of land interest and the United States Petroleum Company of New York. The tanks, building, and property belonged to owners of working interest in the well, and was insured for $29,000 in the Associated Companies of New York.

KETCHUM PLEADS GUILTY TO FOR-GERY INDICTMENTS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9. This morning the counsel for young Ketchum announced he would put in a plea of guilty to the indictments charging his client with forgery. The District Attorney said such a request was not unusual and gave notice that the plea must be put in on the last day of the term. This was agreed to.

The mind's eye is dazzled as we think of them. From the plain gold circle which records the second great era in the life of man to the diamond which blazes upon beauty's brow, from the spoon of infancy to the substantial glories of the family plate, from the breast-pin of ambitions youth to the graven testimonial which the well-deserving receive with blushing pride all that is elegant or useful in the way of gold and silver and precious stones, can be had at Great. Celebration IN BRIDGEPORT!

Now that peace is restored, and prosperity smiles, And our commerce extends to the world's distant iles, And our flag is triumphant on land and on ses, Oh, forget not—neglect not—our great jubilee.

O, commemorate proudly the deeds of that band, Who won and bequeathed us this free, happy land: A land fertilized by the blood of the brave, And adorned by full many a patriot's grave. Stir up the live coals in your smouldering fires;

Be united in peace as in war were your sires; Then political strife and sectarian spleen For a season shall pause overwhelmed by the scene.

Let the sound of rejoicing be borne on the gale From our cities and towns, over mountain and vale; North and South, East and West, our whole country should be Re-united, proclaiming our great jubilee. Then, Hurrah for a peaceful and glorious Fourth; Now let every Man, Woman and Child in the North Goto MCLLAN & CARTWRIGHT'S Chesp, Boot and Shoe Store, The number in Main-street, is two fifty-four.

There to purchase such Shoes or such Boots as you For it is the best place in the State to buy Shoes, As MOLLAN & CARTWRIGHT are always on hand, With prices to suit you, and Boots that will stand.

A Parody ON TENNYSON'S "CHARGE OF THE LIGHT BRIGADE."

Twenty leagues, twenty leagues, twenty leagues, onward All in the smoking car rode the half hundred, Into the smoking car jumped the half hundred, Up came a conductor who never had blur dered, All aboard, you who ride, fire your clears he cried, Off went the smoking car with the half hundred.

Smoke-clouds to right of them, smoke-clouds to left of

By MALCOLM MOLLAN.

Smore-clouds to right of them, smoked out and thundered, them,
Engine in front of them, smoked out and thundered,
For New York need I tell, forward they rode and well,
All bound to buy or sell, lively half hundred,
Plunged in the city smoke, with many a business stroke,
Then they rode home again, jolly half hundred. But while engaged down there, Mollan made merchants stare,

Buying, not by the pair, but by the hundred.
Boots and shoes every kind, everything he could find
That aught he left behind, all New York wondered.
Now at the cheap bout store, Main Street, two fifty-four.
We sell by the pair or score, or by the hundred,
Boots and shoes every cay, too cheap to make it pay,
So cheap that you would say, some one had blundered

FIVE REASONS

WHY I BUY MY BOOTS AND SHOES OF

MOLLAN & CARTWRIGHT, AT 254 MAIN STREET. Because, I there can fit my feet With boots and shoes both good and nest, Of various sorts and every grade, Well cut, well lasted, and well made. Because their lowest price they tell, For every article they sell; In fact their only price they name, That all may purchase at the same, Because they always are content Their goods to fairly represent; They never sell you nailed for sewed, Nor good for bad, nor bad for good.

Because my boots they can repair, For boots, you know in time will wear. They make them almost good as new, With leather sewed by workmen true. Because I've saved full ten per cent.
On all the money I have spent
At Molian and Cartwright's cheap boot store,
