INTRODUCTION

This collection of manufacturers' catalogs was given to the Connecticut State Library in the early nineteen-fifties by the Veeder Root Company.

Though little is known about this donation by the Hartford-based company, these 5500 catalogs afford general and technical information on the "horseless carriage" from 1899-1926.

The index covers 30 companies from the United States and 44 foreign manufacturers. Entries are arranged alphabetically, with separate listings as follows:

- Bicycles
- Sidecars
- Farm Machinery
- Miscellaneous
