

Northville Oct. 6th. 1903

Charles W Hodge Esq.

When W. W. Wille died, mother sent for me to come down, and see to things, Fred Wille, and myself, was the only relatives that saw him die. She also sent for me to come, and see about the inventory, and looking over his things, We gathered up his papers and put them into a bushel basket, and brought them over here, and looked them over, as there was no fire, over there, and it was cold, I helped father to look them over, and mother too, he had told me that he had bought up all of his papers but one, and I saw him put a paper in his pocket on a sly, and I knew from his actions well enough, what he had found, but supposed he would be honest, and I did not look into things, as well as I might have done for I had a good chance as I was up to Uncle Sam, Clarke when they were there and they asked me who had this and that and I could have shown all about it, as the books were on the table, Jay Lyon owed Uncle Willie and Uncle William had a Promissory Note drawn up which would not outlaw in twenty five or thirty years, and there was other Bills, which Mother says father had put into Lawyer Marshes hands. I went to Lawyer Marshes Office and told him I thought father owed Uncle William, and I wanted to see the Judge of Probate to find out about it, but he said he was busy and if I would pay him for his time he would look at my papers, I told him I could not pay him, but I did not know but they might want a witness, I went there again, and he said he was busy, and did not wish to see my paper,

I wish you to look into the W. W. & E. S. Wills Estate and see if Albert S. Hill did make any account of what he owed uncle William, he has told me since I have been here that he paid uncle William long before he died, and I said, no sir,

If I had money in the Bank belonging to John Sidney Smith, and your father put a Mortgage on my property. look into that also, and if his heirs are illegal the property comes to me. Dr Pount cannot hold it or Elizabeth either.

I shall not drop this, not yet. they have sat on me too long, and I shall have my children back into the Town of Washington, recorded on the records before I give up, I am not quite as large a sum scull, as they thought I was, not fool enough to have two or three husbands, either,
