

WHOLE NUMBER 1507.

Be Sure You're Right, then Go Ahead. Adopt this beautiful motto. Write it in letters of gold. This is a saying uttered in wisdom.

An Open Letter to Senator Barnum. O, ho! O, ho! From the Bridgeport Standard. ALL ABOUT THE NORWALK DEMOCRATS.

DEAR SENATOR:—Yours, enquiring as to the state of our cause and the efforts being made by the persons named, is received, as was also your liberal contribution towards our election expenses.

Your promise to distribute at the places we are to have after the fourth of March, to our satisfaction, has only made this part of our "sail hunt" more intensely rosy.

H. H. Barbour wants something and has really done us good service, so we've split his pay by promising him the clerkship of the State Senate.

Jimmy Hyatt is O. K. of course. He is satisfied with being Bank Commissioner and Captain General of the party, across the way, in the Tammany camp.

2:15 about all the time. He used to follow the army as dispenser of solid and liquid refreshments, and if you could get him a post tender position in the Indian country, it would be just the thing for him.

Chief Justice Pinckney is going to vote for us to-morrow and we all know that means—Post Office. Then Warner's paternal by marriage, Deputy Sheriff Adams, expects to have the inside track on this mail service.

Bill Hands, our other Hibernian patriot who led Groce, and who is a good business as well as a good politician.

Friday afternoon we were permitted to listen to the usual weekly exercises of declamation and composition, vocal and instrumental music.

A Connecticut Hero in South Carolina. Mr. Benj. P. Chatfield, formerly a prominent citizen of Westbury, in this State.

THE ABUNDANCE OF THE GAIN IN PROMINENT CITIES. Take, now, the vote of the three cities where the democracy gained 4,000 votes.

From the New York Times. THE RESULT IN CONNECTICUT. EXTRAORDINARY DEMOCRATIC INCREASE OF VOTE IN THE CITIES—SEARLY TWENTY-ONE THOUSAND MORE VOTES CAST IN THE STATE THAN EVER BEFORE—CONVINCING EVIDENCE OF FRAUD.

HARTFORD, Saturday, Nov. 18, 1876. The democratic leaders are so ready to claim fraud, even antecedently and presumptively, that it is rather surprising that they have overlooked one notable instance much more abundant than any other.

THE EASTERN WING OF THE INSTITUTE IS DEVOTED TO THE STUDY OF THE HISTORY OF THE STATE TO THOSE OF THE OTHER SEX.

THE LECTURER INSTEAD OF BEING A GOOD CHRISTIAN, AND A GOOD MAN, AND A GOOD CITIZEN, AND A GOOD FELLOW, AND A GOOD FATHER, AND A GOOD HUSBAND, AND A GOOD FRIEND, AND A GOOD NEIGHBOR, AND A GOOD MAN.

THE LECTURER INSTEAD OF BEING A GOOD CHRISTIAN, AND A GOOD MAN, AND A GOOD CITIZEN, AND A GOOD FELLOW, AND A GOOD FATHER, AND A GOOD HUSBAND, AND A GOOD FRIEND, AND A GOOD NEIGHBOR, AND A GOOD MAN.

THE LECTURER INSTEAD OF BEING A GOOD CHRISTIAN, AND A GOOD MAN, AND A GOOD CITIZEN, AND A GOOD FELLOW, AND A GOOD FATHER, AND A GOOD HUSBAND, AND A GOOD FRIEND, AND A GOOD NEIGHBOR, AND A GOOD MAN.

great democratic increase comes. The vote in Hartford in 1870 was about 6,500; the census gave the city 37,000 inhabitants, showing that the proportion used—one to six—is approximately correct.

A word now as to the means by which this increase was obtained. The State had never since the organization of the Republican party, given a democratic majority until 1867, when Gov. English was elected by a small majority over Gov. Hawley.

Under the laws of the State there is nothing to prevent the taking out of certificates upon the names of dead men, who have moved away, or in fact of issuing forged certificates, which are not subject to any check in the State, and only need to be presented on election day.

There has been great joy at the Corners, followed by an awful revulsion and suspense. The party who were vaccinated from the Corners, and Pollock opened his store here, and the party who were vaccinated from the Corners, and Pollock opened his store here.

THE CIVIL DAMAGE LAW, BY WHICH A WIFE OR CHILD MAY RECOVER DAMAGES FROM LIQUOR-Sellers for death or injury caused to a husband or parent by their immoral traffic, is not altogether a dead letter in this State.

THE CIVIL DAMAGE LAW, BY WHICH A WIFE OR CHILD MAY RECOVER DAMAGES FROM LIQUOR-Sellers for death or injury caused to a husband or parent by their immoral traffic, is not altogether a dead letter in this State.

NORWALK GAZETTE, PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY MORNING. THE SECOND OLDEST PAPER IN THE STATE. OFFICE IN GAZETTE BUILDING.

A. H. BINGTON & CO. A. H. BINGTON, J. B. ELLS, G. N. ELLS. Subscription $3.00 per year, in advance. Single Copies 6 Cents.

Advertising Rates: Four lines, one insertion 50 cts.; 3 times $1.00. One square, one insertion, 1.00. Per week, for continuance, 7.00.

ALEX. S. GIBSON. Organist of the First Congregational Church. Teacher of the Piano-Forte, Organ and Musical Composition.

J. Belden Hurlbutt, Attorney and Counsellor at Law. Room No. 4, Gasette Building.

H. H. BARBOUR, COUNSELLOR AT LAW. Room No. 3, Bank Building, NORWALK, CONN.

REAL ESTATE. TO LET. FOR THE WINTER MONTHS. OR until the first of May, a House in good repair, containing 10 rooms, with the modern improvements.

Desirable Property for sale. A Very desirable lot on East Avenue. Also, a low choice Building Lot situated on O'Brien Avenue, or East Avenue.

FOR SALE. A NEAT RESIDENCE ONE OF THE BEST PLACES. A neat and most desirable residence in town, with a large lot, and a beautiful view.

CONNECTICUT HOTEL. Corner Main and Wall Sts., NORWALK, CT. THE above named Hotel, is prepared to entertain permanent and transient guests.

EDWARD P. WOOD, DRUGGIST. Wall Street, opposite Norfolk Opera House. A large and well selected stock of DRUGS AND MEDICINES.

EDWARD BANKS, Civil Engineer & Borough Surveyor. Office Main St., near Center Ave., NORWALK, CONN.

Are you going to Paint? AVERILL'S CHEMICAL PAINT! THE BEST IN THE MARKET. It is the best in the market, and is used by the best painters.

CARRIAGE MAKERS. MULLINGS & TILLY. Successors to P. TUTTLE, MARSHAL STREET, SOUTH NORWALK. Would respectfully inform the citizens of Norwalk and vicinity that they are prepared to build Carriages and Wagons of every description.

REAL ESTATE. Bought, Sold or Exchanged. Office at Gazette Building, B. J. STURGES, Real Estate Broker.

C. W. BURRITT Has Removed. To No. 4 Phoenix Block, Wall St., Foot of Mill Hill, where with increased facilities he will continue to practice his profession.

ICE CREAM. SODA WATER, with fruit syrups, and OTTAWA BEER, drawn from Matthews Patent Seltzer Fountain.

GEORGE WARD SELLECK, Groceries, Flour, &c. No. 9 MAIN STREET. A choice and the assortment of Groceries, Flour, &c.

Are you going to Paint? AVERILL'S CHEMICAL PAINT! THE BEST IN THE MARKET. It is the best in the market, and is used by the best painters.

CARRIAGE MAKERS. MULLINGS & TILLY. Successors to P. TUTTLE, MARSHAL STREET, SOUTH NORWALK. Would respectfully inform the citizens of Norwalk and vicinity that they are prepared to build Carriages and Wagons of every description.

REAL ESTATE. Bought, Sold or Exchanged. Office at Gazette Building, B. J. STURGES, Real Estate Broker.

C. W. BURRITT Has Removed. To No. 4 Phoenix Block, Wall St., Foot of Mill Hill, where with increased facilities he will continue to practice his profession.

ICE CREAM. SODA WATER, with fruit syrups, and OTTAWA BEER, drawn from Matthews Patent Seltzer Fountain.

GEORGE WARD SELLECK, Groceries, Flour, &c. No. 9 MAIN STREET. A choice and the assortment of Groceries, Flour, &c.

Are you going to Paint? AVERILL'S CHEMICAL PAINT! THE BEST IN THE MARKET. It is the best in the market, and is used by the best painters.

CARRIAGE MAKERS. MULLINGS & TILLY. Successors to P. TUTTLE, MARSHAL STREET, SOUTH NORWALK. Would respectfully inform the citizens of Norwalk and vicinity that they are prepared to build Carriages and Wagons of every description.

REAL ESTATE. Bought, Sold or Exchanged. Office at Gazette Building, B. J. STURGES, Real Estate Broker.

C. W. BURRITT Has Removed. To No. 4 Phoenix Block, Wall St., Foot of Mill Hill, where with increased facilities he will continue to practice his profession.

ICE CREAM. SODA WATER, with fruit syrups, and OTTAWA BEER, drawn from Matthews Patent Seltzer Fountain.

GEORGE WARD SELLECK, Groceries, Flour, &c. No. 9 MAIN STREET. A choice and the assortment of Groceries, Flour, &c.

That Barnum letter. The almost unappreciated quiet and staid manner of Mr. Barnum, was suddenly broken in upon by the arrival here on Thursday of the Barnum letter, containing the curious letter to be written on today's outside.

It purports to have been written on the day before election, and the Standard, who day before yesterday picked up the letter, where it had appeared, was dropped. Since its re-appearance, it has been a source of much conversation, from center to circumference, in roars of laughter. The portraits have in the main, been so correctly and good-naturedly given, that the subjects of the sharpest hits have joined as hearty as anyone in the general laugh, despite the charge that "the man will stand knocking down sooner than being laughed at."

Letters and telegrams were sent flying over to the Standard office for extra copies of their paper, and after exhausting all that office could supply, such a pressure was made upon us, that we were forced into the issuing of extra copies of the Standard for the day. Extra, giving the much needed copies were immediately sold. By a singular coincidence of events we were also able to give in the same Extra, an account of the arrival in New York of the long expected Reformer, Wm. M. Tweed. Added to his satirical thrusts, this letter reveals a degree of scrambling for spots among our democratic friends that is not generally known, and never had the remotest conception. Had the election been carried as the exultant writer prognosticated, there would have been a "happy family" of democratic place-seekers, unrivaled in the history of political parties. Success, as this letter clearly reveals, would have been more than a sufficient inducement to follow the terrible, than the laughter which follows the defeat. Upon the subject of the Standard, we would like to be thankful that they, this far, at least, have not been permitted to come to power and place.

As we have said, the portraits have been so faithfully drawn in the main, such a mirror reflex of the parties named, that about every one has borne it in the mind, and good nature. This takes of the edges, of good nature, if taken in any other spirit, would be as cutting as a Damascus blade. But, as the very best pictures of the ablest artists, will sometimes show defects, we think the author or authors of this most interesting epistle have fallen in portraying the characteristics of all, with exactness.

As we have said, the portraits have been so faithfully drawn in the main, such a mirror reflex of the parties named, that about every one has borne it in the mind, and good nature. This takes of the edges, of good nature, if taken in any other spirit, would be as cutting as a Damascus blade. But, as the very best pictures of the ablest artists, will sometimes show defects, we think the author or authors of this most interesting epistle have fallen in portraying the characteristics of all, with exactness.

As we have said, the portraits have been so faithfully drawn in the main, such a mirror reflex of the parties named, that about every one has borne it in the mind, and good nature. This takes of the edges, of good nature, if taken in any other spirit, would be as cutting as a Damascus blade. But, as the very best pictures of the ablest artists, will sometimes show defects, we think the author or authors of this most interesting epistle have fallen in portraying the characteristics of all, with exactness.

As we have said, the portraits have been so faithfully drawn in the main, such a mirror reflex of the parties named, that about every one has borne it in the mind, and good nature. This takes of the edges, of good nature, if taken in any other spirit, would be as cutting as a Damascus blade. But, as the very best pictures of the ablest artists, will sometimes show defects, we think the author or authors of this most interesting epistle have fallen in portraying the characteristics of all, with exactness.

As we have said, the portraits have been so faithfully drawn in the main, such a mirror reflex of the parties named, that about every one has borne it in the mind, and good nature. This takes of the edges, of good nature, if taken in any other spirit, would be as cutting as a Damascus blade. But, as the very best pictures of the ablest artists, will sometimes show defects, we think the author or authors of this most interesting epistle have fallen in portraying the characteristics of all, with exactness.

As we have said, the portraits have been so faithfully drawn in the main, such a mirror reflex of the parties named, that about every one has borne it in the mind, and good nature. This takes of the edges, of good nature, if taken in any other spirit, would be as cutting as a Damascus blade. But, as the very best pictures of the ablest artists, will sometimes show defects, we think the author or authors of this most interesting epistle have fallen in portraying the characteristics of all, with exactness.

As we have said, the portraits have been so faithfully drawn in the main, such a mirror reflex of the parties named, that about every one has borne it in the mind, and good nature. This takes of the edges, of good nature, if taken in any other spirit, would be as cutting as a Damascus blade. But, as the very best pictures of the ablest artists, will sometimes show defects, we think the author or authors of this most interesting epistle have fallen in portraying the characteristics of all, with exactness.

As we have said, the portraits have been so faithfully drawn in the main, such a mirror reflex of the parties named, that about every one has borne it in the mind, and good nature. This takes of the edges, of good nature, if taken in any other spirit, would be as cutting as a Damascus blade. But, as the very best pictures of the ablest artists, will sometimes show defects, we think the author or authors of this most interesting epistle have fallen in portraying the characteristics of all, with exactness.

As we have said, the portraits have been so faithfully drawn in the main, such a mirror reflex of the parties named, that about every one has borne it in the mind, and good nature. This takes of the edges, of good nature, if taken in any other spirit, would be as cutting as a Damascus blade. But, as the very best pictures of the ablest artists, will sometimes show defects, we think the author or authors of this most interesting epistle have fallen in portraying the characteristics of all, with exactness.

As we have said, the portraits have been so faithfully drawn in the main, such a mirror reflex of the parties named, that about every one has borne it in the mind, and good nature. This takes of the edges, of good nature, if taken in any other spirit, would be as cutting as a Damascus blade. But, as the very best pictures of the ablest artists, will sometimes show defects, we think the author or authors of this most interesting epistle have fallen in portraying the characteristics of all, with exactness.

As we have said, the portraits have been so faithfully drawn in the main, such a mirror reflex of the parties named, that about every one has borne it in the mind, and good nature. This takes of the edges, of good nature, if taken in any other spirit, would be as cutting as a Damascus blade. But, as the very best pictures of the ablest artists, will sometimes show defects, we think the author or authors of this most interesting epistle have fallen in portraying the characteristics of all, with exactness.

As we have said, the portraits have been so faithfully drawn in the main, such a mirror reflex of the parties named, that about every one has borne it in the mind, and good nature. This takes of the edges, of good nature, if taken in any other spirit, would be as cutting as a Damascus blade. But, as the very best pictures of the ablest artists, will sometimes show defects, we think the author or authors of this most interesting epistle have fallen in portraying the characteristics of all, with exactness.

As we have said, the portraits have been so faithfully drawn in the main, such a mirror reflex of the parties named, that about every one has borne it in the mind, and good nature. This takes of the edges, of good nature, if taken in any other spirit, would be as cutting as a Damascus blade. But, as the very best pictures of the ablest artists, will sometimes show defects, we think the author or authors of this most interesting epistle have fallen in portraying the characteristics of all, with exactness.

As we have said, the portraits have been so faithfully drawn in the main, such a mirror reflex of the parties named, that about every one has borne it in the mind, and good nature. This takes of the edges, of good nature, if taken in any other spirit, would be as cutting as a Damascus blade. But, as the very best pictures of the ablest artists, will sometimes show defects, we think the author or authors of this most interesting epistle have fallen in portraying the characteristics of all, with exactness.

As we have said, the portraits have been so faithfully drawn in the main, such a mirror reflex of the parties named, that about every one has borne it in the mind, and good nature. This takes of the edges, of good nature, if taken in any other spirit, would be as cutting as a Damascus blade. But, as the very best pictures of the ablest artists, will sometimes show defects, we think the author or authors of this most interesting epistle have fallen in portraying the characteristics of all, with exactness.

As we have said, the portraits have been so faithfully drawn in the main, such a mirror reflex of the parties named, that about every one has borne it in the mind, and good nature. This takes of the edges, of good nature, if taken in any other spirit, would be as cutting as a Damascus blade. But, as the very best pictures of the ablest artists, will sometimes show defects, we think the author or authors of this most interesting epistle have fallen in portraying the characteristics of all, with exactness.

As we have said, the portraits have been so faithfully drawn in the main, such a mirror reflex of the parties named, that about every one has borne it in the mind, and good nature. This takes of the edges, of good nature, if taken in any other spirit, would be as cutting as a Damascus blade. But, as the very best pictures of the ablest artists, will sometimes show defects, we think the author or authors of this most interesting epistle have fallen in portraying the characteristics of all, with exactness.

As we have said, the portraits have been so faithfully drawn in the main, such a mirror reflex of the parties named, that about every one has borne it in the mind, and good nature. This takes of the edges, of good nature, if taken in any other spirit, would be as cutting as a Damascus blade. But, as the very best pictures of the ablest artists, will sometimes show defects, we think the author or authors of this most interesting epistle have fallen in portraying the characteristics of all, with exactness.

As we have said, the portraits have been so faithfully drawn in the main, such a mirror reflex of the parties named, that about every one has borne it in the mind, and good nature. This takes of the edges, of good nature, if taken in any other spirit, would be as cutting as a Damascus blade. But, as the very best pictures of the ablest artists, will sometimes show defects, we think the author or authors of this most interesting epistle have fallen in portraying the characteristics of all, with exactness.

As we have said, the portraits have been so faithfully drawn in the main, such a mirror reflex of the parties named, that about every one has borne it in the mind, and good nature. This takes of the edges, of good nature, if taken in any other spirit, would be as cutting as a Damascus blade. But, as the very best pictures of the ablest artists, will sometimes show defects, we think the author or authors of this most interesting epistle have fallen in portraying the characteristics of all, with exactness.

As we have said, the portraits have been so faithfully drawn in the main, such a mirror reflex of the parties named, that about every one has borne it in the mind, and good nature. This takes of the edges, of good nature, if taken in any other spirit, would be as cutting as a Damascus blade. But, as the very best pictures of the ablest artists, will sometimes show defects, we think the author or authors of this most interesting epistle have fallen in portraying the characteristics of all, with exactness.

Ridged Agricultural Society. The annual meeting was held on Saturday, the 25th inst., in the new Town Hall at Ridged, and was called to order by the President, E. H. Smith, Esq.

The report of the Treasurer was read, and showed that the Society was made up by tax on each share, sufficed to pay the indebtedness. This was discussed pro and con, and unanimously voted down. It was then voted unanimously to authorize the Treasurer to borrow the necessary amount required to liquidate the claims against the Society.

A ballot for Directors was then taken, and resulted in the re-election of the old Board: Edward H. Smith, Cyrus Lawrence, So. Salem, E. F. Foster, Redding, C. B. Northrop, Timothy Jones, E. W. Keeler, John S. Keeler, Danbury, Ira S. Keeler, John N. Olmsted, David K. Hoyt, John Garham, Willon, James H. Hoyt, Wm. Seymour, S. Wm. W. Beers, Wm. E. Dann, and J. H. Smith.

Mr. Cyrus Lawrence positively declining to qualify, Mr. Edward Lawrence was elected in his stead. The meeting then adjourned.

At a meeting of the Directors held immediately after the adjournment of the Society by resolution, Edward H. Smith was unanimously re-elected President, with James N. Olmsted, Vice-President, Ira S. Keeler, Treasurer, and E. F. Foster, Secretary.

Mr. Keeler positively declined an election a new ballot was taken resulting in the election of D. S. Sholes as Treasurer.

Mr. Keeler positively declined an election a new ballot was taken resulting in the election of D. S. Sholes as Treasurer.

Mr. Keeler positively declined an election a new ballot was taken resulting in the election of D. S. Sholes as Treasurer.

Mr. Keeler positively declined an election a new ballot was taken resulting in the election of D. S. Sholes as Treasurer.

Mr. Keeler positively declined an election a new ballot was taken resulting in the election of D. S. Sholes as Treasurer.

Mr. Keeler positively declined an election a new ballot was taken resulting in the election of D. S. Sholes as Treasurer.

Mr. Keeler positively declined an election a new ballot was taken resulting in the election of D. S. Sholes as Treasurer.

Mr. Keeler positively declined an election a new ballot was taken resulting in the election of D. S. Sholes as Treasurer.

Mr. Keeler positively declined an election a new ballot was taken resulting in the election of D. S. Sholes as Treasurer.

Mr. Keeler positively declined an election a new ballot was taken resulting in the election of D. S. Sholes as Treasurer.

Mr. Keeler positively declined an election a new ballot was taken resulting in the election of D. S. Sholes as Treasurer.

Mr. Keeler positively declined an election a new ballot was taken resulting in the election of D. S. Sholes as Treasurer.

Mr. Keeler positively declined an election a new ballot was taken resulting in the election of D. S. Sholes as Treasurer.

Mr. Keeler positively declined an election a new ballot was taken resulting in the election of D. S. Sholes as Treasurer.

Mr. Keeler positively declined an election a new ballot was taken resulting in the election of D. S. Sholes as Treasurer.

The face of nature was white yesterday morning. The Fifth Ave. Bank Co. will start on Monday.

A gambler has been sentenced to the State Prison for a term of one year and a month for a crime committed in Kentucky.

The famous Fryer sisters, vocalists, are in the city. The Danbury News speaks disrespectfully of Dr. Wm. Walker.

Rev. Jas. W. H. H. preached his first well sermon, in the veterans' hall, on Sunday last, Saturday, the veterans' day in New York City.

The storm last week Monday was very severe on the Sound, and the steamers had to make harbor.

John Kelly, Tammany's Big Lujah, was married last Tuesday, to a niece of Cardinal Caspary.

Jas. W. Pinkney, Esq., indignantly resents the imputation that he is a candidate for any office.

Honorable's bread and cake are in greater demand than ever, since it is settled that he is to be Postmaster.

In New York, Tuesday, 60 shares of New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad stock was sold at 145.

Wilson says that Bridgeport Letter has been worth $200 to him already, as an advertisement. We don't doubt it.

Constance's shoe store opening, Saturday night, was a brilliant affair. They must have done a large opening trade at least.

New York State polled more than one million votes. If this continues we may soon have more voters than population.

The children of the First Congregational Church, Danbury, held a social at their little Fair on Friday afternoon and evening last.

Our good natured friend Burr Smith is hereafter going to date all his propeller bills from the Light House. None other genuine.

The New York & New Haven Railroad Co. has declared a dividend of 10 per cent. semi-annual dividends, payable January 23.

El Perkin was in town taking notes about election time. Perhaps he knows something about the authorship of that democratic letter.

Mrs. Mary Ann Birch, of New York, was one hundred years old, Sunday, Nov. 21, and attended church to hear a sermon on "Old Age."

The Burdick Guards have secured Fred. Wannenmacher for their Ball on the 29th, 60 of course they will have music fit for any one to dance to.

Rev. Mr. Hamilton, of the First Congregational church, exchanged pulpits on Sunday morning, with Rev. Mr. Bentley, of the First Baptist church.

A $200,000 fire occurred in New Haven, Sunday morning. The large slaughter and packing house of Sperry & Barnes, Long wharf, was destroyed.

The Danbury News speaks disrespectfully of Dr. Wm. Walker.

Rev. Jas. W. H. H. preached his first well sermon, in the veterans' hall, on Sunday last, Saturday, the veterans' day in New York City.

The storm last week Monday was very severe on the Sound, and the steamers had to make harbor.

John Kelly, Tammany's Big Lujah, was married last Tuesday, to a niece of Cardinal Caspary.

Jas. W. Pinkney, Esq., indignantly resents the imputation that he is a candidate for any office.

Honorable's bread and cake are in greater demand than ever, since it is settled that he is to be Postmaster.

In New York, Tuesday, 60 shares of New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad stock was sold at 145.

Wilson says that Bridgeport Letter has been worth $200 to him already, as an advertisement. We don't doubt it.

Constance's shoe store opening, Saturday night, was a brilliant affair. They must have done a large opening trade at least.

New York State polled more than one million votes. If this continues we may soon have more voters than population.

The children of the First Congregational Church, Danbury, held a social at their little Fair on Friday afternoon and evening last.

Our good natured friend Burr Smith is hereafter going to date all his propeller bills from the Light House. None other genuine.

The New York & New Haven Railroad Co. has declared a dividend of 10 per cent. semi-annual dividends, payable January 23.

El Perkin was in town taking notes about election time. Perhaps he knows something about the authorship of that democratic letter.

Mrs. Mary Ann Birch, of New York, was one hundred years old, Sunday, Nov. 21, and attended church to hear a sermon on "Old Age."

The Burdick Guards have secured Fred. Wannenmacher for their Ball on the 29th, 60 of course they will have music fit for any one to dance to.

Rev. Mr. Hamilton, of the First Congregational church, exchanged pulpits on Sunday morning, with Rev. Mr. Bentley, of the First Baptist church.

A $200,000 fire occurred in New Haven, Sunday morning. The large slaughter and packing house of Sperry & Barnes, Long wharf, was destroyed.

The Danbury News speaks disrespectfully of Dr. Wm. Walker.

Rev. Jas. W. H. H. preached his first well sermon, in the veterans' hall, on Sunday last, Saturday, the veterans' day in New York City.

The Danbury News speaks disrespectfully of Dr. Wm. Walker.

Rev. Jas. W. H. H. preached his first well sermon, in the veterans' hall, on Sunday last, Saturday, the veterans' day in New York City.

The storm last week Monday was very severe on the Sound, and the steamers had to make harbor.

John Kelly, Tammany's Big Lujah, was married last Tuesday, to a niece of Cardinal Caspary.

Jas. W. Pinkney, Esq., indignantly resents the imputation that he is a candidate for any office.

Honorable's bread and cake are in greater demand than ever, since it is settled that he is to be Postmaster.

In New York, Tuesday, 60 shares of New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad stock was sold at 145.

Wilson says that Bridgeport Letter has been worth $200 to him already, as an advertisement. We don't doubt it.

Constance's shoe store opening, Saturday night, was a brilliant affair. They must have done a large opening trade at least.

New York State polled more than one million votes. If this continues we may soon have more voters than population.

The children of the First Congregational Church, Danbury, held a social at their little Fair on Friday afternoon and evening last.

Our good natured friend Burr Smith is hereafter going to date all his propeller bills from the Light House. None other genuine.

The New York & New Haven Railroad Co. has declared a dividend of 10 per cent. semi-annual dividends, payable January 23.

El Perkin was in town taking notes about election time. Perhaps he knows something about the authorship of that democratic letter.

Mrs. Mary Ann Birch, of New York, was one hundred years old, Sunday, Nov. 21, and attended church to hear a sermon on "Old Age."

The Burdick Guards have secured Fred. Wannenmacher for their Ball on the 29th, 60 of course they will have music fit for any one to dance to.

Rev. Mr. Hamilton, of the First Congregational church, exchanged pulpits on Sunday morning, with Rev. Mr. Bentley, of the First Baptist church.

A $200,000 fire occurred in New Haven, Sunday morning. The large slaughter and packing house of Sperry & Barnes, Long wharf, was destroyed.

The Danbury News speaks disrespectfully of Dr. Wm. Walker.

Rev. Jas. W. H. H. preached his first well sermon, in the veterans' hall, on Sunday last, Saturday, the veterans' day in New York City.

The Danbury News speaks disrespectfully of Dr. Wm. Walker.

Rev. Jas. W. H. H. preached his first well sermon, in the veterans' hall, on Sunday last, Saturday, the veterans' day in New York City.

The storm last week Monday was very severe on the Sound, and the steamers had to make harbor.

John Kelly, Tammany's Big Lujah, was married last Tuesday, to a niece of Cardinal Caspary.

Jas. W. Pinkney, Esq., indignantly resents the imputation that he is a candidate for any office.

Honorable's bread and cake are in greater demand than ever, since it is settled that he is to be Postmaster.

In New York, Tuesday, 60 shares of New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad stock was sold at 145.

Wilson says that Bridgeport Letter has been worth $200 to him already, as an advertisement. We don't doubt it.

Constance's shoe store opening, Saturday night, was a brilliant affair. They must have done a large opening trade at least.

New York State polled more than one million votes. If this continues we may soon have more voters than population.

The children of the First Congregational Church, Danbury, held a social at their little Fair on Friday afternoon and evening last.

Our good natured friend Burr Smith is hereafter going to date all his propeller bills from the Light House. None other genuine.

The New York & New Haven Railroad Co. has declared a dividend of 10 per cent. semi-annual dividends, payable January 23.

El Perkin was in town taking notes about election time. Perhaps he knows something about the authorship of that democratic letter.

Mrs. Mary Ann Birch, of New York, was one hundred years old, Sunday, Nov. 21, and attended church to hear a sermon on "Old Age."

The Burdick Guards have secured Fred. Wannenmacher for their Ball on the 29th, 60 of course they will have music fit for any one to dance to.

Rev. Mr. Hamilton, of the First Congregational church, exchanged pulpits on Sunday morning, with Rev. Mr. Bentley, of the First Baptist church.

A $200,000 fire occurred in New Haven, Sunday morning. The large slaughter and packing house of Sperry & Barnes, Long wharf, was destroyed.

The Danbury News speaks disrespectfully of Dr. Wm. Walker.

Rev. Jas. W. H. H. preached his first well sermon, in the veterans' hall, on Sunday last, Saturday, the veterans' day in New York City.

The Danbury News speaks disrespectfully of Dr. Wm. Walker.

Rev. Jas. W. H. H. preached his first well sermon, in the veterans' hall, on Sunday last, Saturday, the veterans' day in New York City.

The storm last week Monday was very severe on the Sound, and the steamers had to make harbor.

John Kelly, Tammany's Big Lujah, was married last Tuesday, to a niece of Cardinal Caspary.

Jas. W. Pinkney, Esq., indignantly resents the imputation that he is a candidate for any office.

Honorable's bread and cake are in greater demand than ever, since it is settled that he is to be Postmaster.

In New York, Tuesday, 60 shares of New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad stock was sold at 145.

Wilson says that Bridgeport Letter has been worth $200 to him already, as an advertisement. We don't doubt it.

Constance's shoe store opening, Saturday night, was a brilliant affair. They must have done a large opening trade at least.

New York State polled more than one million votes. If this continues we may soon have more voters than population.

The children of the First Congregational Church, Danbury, held a social at their little Fair on Friday afternoon and evening last.

Our good natured friend Burr Smith is hereafter going to date all his propeller bills from the Light House. None other genuine.

The New York & New Haven Railroad Co. has declared a dividend of 10 per cent. semi-annual dividends, payable January 23.

El Perkin was in town taking notes about election time. Perhaps he knows something about the authorship of that democratic letter.

Mrs. Mary Ann Birch, of New York, was one hundred years old, Sunday, Nov. 21, and attended church to hear a sermon on "Old Age."

The Burdick Guards have secured Fred. Wannenmacher for their Ball on the 29th, 60 of course they will have music fit for any one to dance to.

Rev. Mr. Hamilton, of the First Congregational church, exchanged pulpits on Sunday morning, with Rev. Mr. Bentley, of the First Baptist church.

A $200,000 fire occurred in New Haven, Sunday morning. The large slaughter and packing house of Sperry & Barnes, Long wharf, was destroyed.

The Danbury News speaks disrespectfully of Dr. Wm. Walker.

Rev. Jas. W. H. H. preached his first well sermon, in the veterans' hall, on Sunday last, Saturday, the veterans' day in New York City.

The Danbury News speaks disrespectfully of Dr. Wm. Walker.

Rev. Jas. W. H. H. preached his first well sermon, in the veterans' hall, on Sunday last, Saturday, the veterans' day in New York City.

The storm last week Monday was very severe on the Sound, and the steamers had to make harbor.

John Kelly, Tammany's Big Lujah, was married last Tuesday, to a niece of Cardinal Caspary.

Jas. W. Pinkney, Esq., indignantly resents the imputation that he is a candidate for any office.

Honorable's bread and cake are in greater demand than ever, since it is settled that he is to be Postmaster.

In New York, Tuesday, 60 shares of New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad stock was sold at 145.

Wilson says that Bridgeport Letter has been worth $200 to him already, as an advertisement. We don't doubt it.

Constance's shoe store opening, Saturday night, was a brilliant affair. They must have done a large opening trade at least.

New York State polled more than one million votes. If this continues we may soon have more voters than population.

The children of the First Congregational Church, Danbury, held a social at their little Fair on Friday afternoon and evening last.

Our good natured friend Burr Smith is hereafter going to date all his propeller bills from the Light House. None other genuine.

The New York & New Haven Railroad Co. has declared a dividend of 10 per cent. semi-annual dividends, payable January 23.

El Perkin was in town taking notes about election time. Perhaps he knows something about the authorship of that democratic letter.

Mrs. Mary Ann Birch, of New York, was one hundred years old, Sunday, Nov. 21, and attended church to hear a sermon on "Old Age."

The Burdick Guards have secured Fred. Wannenmacher for their Ball on the 29th, 60 of course they will have music fit for any one to dance to.

Rev. Mr. Hamilton, of the First Congregational church, exchanged pulpits on Sunday morning, with Rev. Mr. Bentley, of the First Baptist church.

A $200,000 fire occurred in New Haven, Sunday morning. The large slaughter and packing house of Sperry & Barnes, Long wharf, was destroyed.

The Danbury News speaks disrespectfully of Dr. Wm. Walker.

Rev. Jas. W. H. H. preached his first well sermon, in the veterans' hall, on Sunday last, Saturday, the veterans' day in New York City.

Norwalk Gazette. Tuesday, November 28th, 1870. The almost unappreciated quiet and staid manner of Mr. Barnum, was suddenly broken in upon by the arrival here on Thursday of the Barnum letter, containing the curious letter to be written on today's outside. It purports to have been written on the day before election, and the Standard, who day before yesterday picked up the letter, where it had appeared, was dropped. Since its re-appearance, it has been a source of much conversation, from center to circumference, in roars of laughter. The portraits have in the main, been so correctly and good-naturedly given, that the subjects of the shar

Fairfield County Items.

SILVER MINE. Friendly Excursion, S. of T., holds their Anniversary exercises in their hall, on Thursday evening, Dec. 7. Concord Division has been invited to attend and have accepted the invitation.

WINNIPAU.

Notwithstanding the unusually severe storm Monday evening last, a large number of the members and invited guests of the Concord Division of the N. Y. S. N. E. G. met at the school house to celebrate its First Anniversary, and if the elements outside contributed to discomfort, within the hall the pleasure was not lessened. The programme was arranged to include an excellent one, and was fully carried out. Andrew R. Wardrop in the absence of the W. C. T., Edson Ayers, presided with his usual dignity. A record of the Lodge's transaction for the past year was read by brother Ed. Northrop. An excellent address was delivered by the Rev. Garrett Hallenbeck, it was an earnest and impressive appeal in favor of the cause of temperance and was listened to with marked attention by the audience. Refreshments of which there was plenty and to spare was served, much to the gratification of all present, and all worked earnestly to make this part of the programme anything but a failure and on "what we know of Refreshments" was well said by the Rev. Mr. Wardrop. After refreshments and "under the good of the Order" Songs and Recitations followed each other in quick succession for over an hour, by the members of the Lodge, and Mr. Naughton who contributed a Poem, which he read, and was encored when he recited by request in his usual admirable manner "Tell's address to his native country."

The singing of Miss Lizzie and Ida Crowther was a specially pleasing part of the evening's entertainment, and they, with the contributors to the refreshments will please accept the thanks of the Committee.

The Anniversary Meeting was well closed by singing the Doxology, and all went home with the evening's entertainment. August Dismore and Willie Armstrong on the evening of the 18th inst. returned during the past week, no doubt satisfied from experience that "there's no place like home."

Mr. Andrew Hutchinson is adding to the convenience of his estate by erecting a barn thereon.

The M. D.'s are busy just now. Diphtheria and sore throats are very prevalent. The building recently vacated by George Breckenridge unoccupied, would it not on account of its size and location answer nearly the purpose of this village for a Public Hall, School Room, Lodge Room and Library. We hope something may be done soon either in this or some other direction to satisfy the needs of the Societies and the public.

Mike McEnery is spoken of for the position of Post Master in the event of the resignation of Tilden to the Presidency. J. B. O'Connell is also a candidate.

Rufus the Hooper has been roofing it for the Norwalk Mills Co. during the past week.

RIDGEFIELD. The Tilden barn still waits. Mr. Geo. I. Haight has returned to Ridgefield and has purchased the Foster place, where he resides.

Rev. L. W. Abbott formerly pastor of the M. E. Church has purchased the Nash place in Tildens. He will make extensive repairs next year, and one year from the Spring will occupy it as a permanent residence.

Services are to be held in the three churches, Thanksgiving day. At the Congregational Church, Mr. Teller will give an historical discourse. He delivered it two years ago, and now repeats by request. A good idea for the Centenary year.

The Popular Lecture Course, which was spoken of last week as an experiment, can now be called a success. It opened Friday evening with an audience of one hundred and ninety-two, thus insuring the financial success of the enterprise. The lecture by Prof. Rice was of interest to the nearly all, though necessarily somewhat dry to those who have given but little attention to geology. The new Hall stood the first test well. Fully lighted, comfortably seated, and finely adapted for public speaking.

The next lecture will be December 9th, by Col. Sprague, who the New York Tribune considers one of the most popular lecturers in the country.

Hezekiah Scott died, last Monday afternoon, aged eighty-six years, ten months, and twenty-five days.

He died as he had lived, a noble man, revered by many and respected by all. He was one of the oldest Masons in the State. He was a devoted member of his society, and was always a thorough Christian.

His religious belief, founded upon a thorough biblical knowledge, was sufficient to give him a "restful peace" in this life and an abiding faith in that which is to come.

DANBURY. Mrs. Livermore lectured last Friday evening on the subject, "The New West and its Progress."

Mr. Bennett died suddenly, last Tuesday evening, at his home in Mill Plain district.

The Hichings Bernard troupe will appear twice, this season, in Danbury, once in costume comedy and once in the opera of the "Bohemian Girl."

Union services will be held on Thanksgiving day, and Rev. Mr. Pillsbury will preside over the services.

Dr. F. W. Bennett is going to Newark to practice his profession.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Elphinston Valley Road was held on the 24th inst., and the old board of directors were chosen and they also re-elected the officers.

The report of the officers was encouraging, the income being considerably ahead of years before. At the last examination of the railroad, the report was reported the road had in a better condition than ever before.

Mr. and Mrs. Van P. Penn recently celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage.

T. Peck is preparing to build a block of tenement houses on Chestnut Street.

St. Albans, Vt. H. W. Beecher is to lecture in Stamford next month.

The steamer Osseo has suspended trips for the winter.

During the prevalence of the easterly storm Sunday, 19th, a tonnage weighing over two hundred pounds, got ashore on Davenport Point. The "amiable" lived for twenty-four hours in a good state.

On the night of Thursday last, a large stack of hay on Smith's Ridge, belonging to Mr. Hubbard, Esq., was set on fire and destroyed.

The Yale Lock works are running on short time at present, but it is believed they will start up on full time soon.

The Green District is to be furnished with a fine school building, with two stories and basement. Work on the basement commenced last week, and Messrs. Veit & Hill are to lay the foundation.

Veit & Hill are to lay the foundation for the school building, and Messrs. Veit & Hill are to lay the foundation for the school building.

The death in New York, Friday, 24th, of Mr. Benjamin R. Cushman, is announced.

Mr. Cushman was born in Danbury, and spent his childhood in this place, during the summer just past had the honor of making his acquaintance with his companions very many and each the most pleasant.

He seemed to breathe with a brief hearing before Judge Bell, Thursday evening in the Court of Common Pleas room. Mr. Seelye gave bonds on the two indictments, $1000 as a surety on keeping the peace, and $500 to appear at the February term of the Superior Court on the charge of assault.

The Osseo has launched off for the season, and now "laid up" at Knapp's dock.

The Yale Lock works are now running but four days in the week from Tuesday and until Friday, inclusive, and but seven hours a day. This necessary reduction in time, for the order of the day, is severely felt by the employees.—Herald.

WESTPORT.

Selectman James Smith's in a fair way of getting himself into a sorry, and almost a disgraceful position. He has known, the railroad company have exercised in their every move with caution, taking care to consult the people, and in particular the selectmen as to the best method of laying tracks. The selectmen acquiesced in all the company did and the people thought they saw progress for the road. The selectmen, however, the bridge were laid by the company progressively, as suggested, the selectmen even putting special timbers into the bridge for the road's accommodation. Mr. Sessions was the contractor and did his work well, but by reason of delay in finishing the bridge, he was unable, by reason of engagements elsewhere to finish it in his hands, and on Thursday while at work on the bridge was approached by Mr. Smith, who found fault with the rails in which the work was going on—the rails were too far from the side of the bridge—there was too little space for vehicles etc. Mr. Downes kept on with his work. Mr. S. warning up, in a loose order ordered Mr. D. to do his work in a loose order, and was not to be deterred by threats, which made Mr. S. so mad that he filled the air with imprecations, and even threatened to tear the rails up. He actually seized one rail with intent to throw it into the river but his weight restrained him. He called Mr. D. a liar, otherwise vilified him, and hinted that he would have him arrested if he did not cease work. Mr. D. took it all coolly. A crowd of people gathered all that said. Saturday Mr. D. reached the drawbridge and was putting the rails on when Mr. S. again appeared, and the scene of Thursday was again repeated. Mr. S. this time getting as mad as an August hornet with his stinger cut out. Mr. D. paid little attention to the noise and carried on his work, and laughed after Smith had been before two justices for a writ of arrest and failed. Smith left Downes, and in the evening button-holed President Harbut with refusal to shift the tracks from the line established. This caused Smith to blow over in mad anger, and again he threatened to tear the rails up, and to enjoin the company from driving their cars across the bridge. Mr. H. told S. to crack his whip all he pleased in a proceeding of that kind. In this state the matter rested over Sunday, during the sacred hours of which common sense people pondered on that old fable of the frog which fancied it could become an ox, and the effort to swell itself up to that animal's proportions, burst. It is believed Mr. S. will apply to the Superior Court today (Monday) for an injunction, and it is further believed the company's answer will be the means of sending said injunction, if it should really obtain it, higher than a kite.

Two large farm barns owned by Charles B. Shawcross, Esq., Green's Farm, were burned Friday night with their contents, embracing some 30 tons of hay. The fire department came out promptly when the alarm was given, but owing to the distance did not proceed. "Comp'g" Hose Co. however, were plucky enough to drag their machine to the barn. Tramps, who have nightly infested the farm, and were applied, the match. The loss in full is not known.

Two more lamps are to be placed on the village bridge. The public school's Thanksgiving vacation takes in nine days, during which, among the boys there will be "catching of balls on the fly," and more or less agony on "first base."

Had, James H. Allen, who has been in town the past week, believes Mr. Hayes has been honestly and fairly elected. Dr. Powers has built a new barn. On Wednesday, Judge Beardsley will decide the disputed question as to who have been elected Members of the Board of School Visitors.

Mr. E. S. Wheeler's gravel walk from his house to the depot at Saugatuck is an improvement. Mr. Landon Ketchum's health is reported as improving. Under contract of Mr. William L. Coley, Capt. William H. Allen will have erected on land purchased of Mr. H. R. Treadwell near the house of Mr. Stephen Downes, a fine dwelling—one of the first evidences of the good effects of a horse railroad in active operation.

The man who got up at three o'clock the morning after election, and with nothing on but a pair of drawers and a coat thrown over his shoulders hastened to join a procession of crazy "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's election (?) met Mr. D. A. Salmon in Belden's store (Friday) and asked him "how about fraud in Southern Returning boards?" Salmon replied that the cry of fraud would, with better grace, come from another quarter. The rejoinder was, that if similar language was repeated the person using it "boys in white" and help fire a cannon in honor of Tilden's

Norwalk Gazette

Tuesday, November 24th, 1876

Sound the Alarm!
Our New York Letter

The Great Agency - The News Boys - The Pools

Who is the prevailing topic in the city now is...

They are smiling and confident and the democracy...

They claim that if Hayes is elected...

It will be found, and in the opinion of the...

and of the democracy in the city...

They are hard for these men, unostentatious...

gentlemen who have promises of places under...

Tilden, in the event of his election, to resign...

their offices, and being compelled to go back...

to ordinary thieving for a living. Sincere...

in custom houses, with unlimited opportunities...

for stealing are much easier to come by...

than they are in the city. They are...

They are hard for these men, unostentatious...

gentlemen who have promises of places under...

Tilden, in the event of his election, to resign...

their offices, and being compelled to go back...

to ordinary thieving for a living. Sincere...

in custom houses, with unlimited opportunities...

for stealing are much easier to come by...

than they are in the city. They are...

They are hard for these men, unostentatious...

gentlemen who have promises of places under...

Tilden, in the event of his election, to resign...

their offices, and being compelled to go back...

to ordinary thieving for a living. Sincere...

in custom houses, with unlimited opportunities...

for stealing are much easier to come by...

than they are in the city. They are...

They are hard for these men, unostentatious...

gentlemen who have promises of places under...

Tilden, in the event of his election, to resign...

their offices, and being compelled to go back...

to ordinary thieving for a living. Sincere...

in custom houses, with unlimited opportunities...

for stealing are much easier to come by...

than they are in the city. They are...

They are hard for these men, unostentatious...

gentlemen who have promises of places under...

Tilden, in the event of his election, to resign...

their offices, and being compelled to go back...

to ordinary thieving for a living. Sincere...

in custom houses, with unlimited opportunities...

for stealing are much easier to come by...

than they are in the city. They are...

They are hard for these men, unostentatious...

gentlemen who have promises of places under...

Tilden, in the event of his election, to resign...

their offices, and being compelled to go back...

to ordinary thieving for a living. Sincere...

in custom houses, with unlimited opportunities...

for stealing are much easier to come by...

than they are in the city. They are...

They are hard for these men, unostentatious...

gentlemen who have promises of places under...

Tilden, in the event of his election, to resign...

their offices, and being compelled to go back...

to ordinary thieving for a living. Sincere...

in custom houses, with unlimited opportunities...

for stealing are much easier to come by...

than they are in the city. They are...

They are hard for these men, unostentatious...

gentlemen who have promises of places under...

Tilden, in the event of his election, to resign...

their offices, and being compelled to go back...

to ordinary thieving for a living. Sincere...

in custom houses, with unlimited opportunities...

for stealing are much easier to come by...

than they are in the city. They are...

They are hard for these men, unostentatious...

gentlemen who have promises of places under...

Tilden, in the event of his election, to resign...

their offices, and being compelled to go back...

to ordinary thieving for a living. Sincere...

in custom houses, with unlimited opportunities...

for stealing are much easier to come by...

than they are in the city. They are...

They are hard for these men, unostentatious...

gentlemen who have promises of places under...

Tilden, in the event of his election, to resign...

their offices, and being compelled to go back...

to ordinary thieving for a living. Sincere...

in custom houses, with unlimited opportunities...

for stealing are much easier to come by...

than they are in the city. They are...

They are hard for these men, unostentatious...

gentlemen who have promises of places under...

Endorsers of R. H. Hayes

The "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

of the "Mr. Andrew" who has mentioned in the...

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

$100 REWARD
The above reward will be paid to any person...

Choice Wines & Liquors

FOR MEDICAL PURPOSES

FARMY & TOLL ANTISEPTIC MEDICINES

Physicians' Prescriptions carefully compounded...

W. M. POTTER, DEALER IN

PIANOS ORGANS,

MELODEONS,

Sheet Music, &c.,

Wall Street, Norwalk, Ct.

NEXT DOOR TO SAVIG'S BANK

I keep a large stock of instruments on hand...

SOLE AGENTS FOR THE CELEBRATED

WEBER PIANOS,

STANLEY & SON'S,

GROVETOWN & FULLER'S,

HAINES BROTHER,

WASE & SON,

and will furnish at short notice

Call and see them.

OLD INSTRUMENTS

Taken in Exchange for New

TUNING AND REPAIRS

Done at short notice.

The Weber Piano.

A few extracts from the great number received...

The Weber Piano occupies the first rank...

among the best in the world. J. M. Potter.

I have never seen a Piano which equals the Weber...

Piano. J. M. Potter.

The Weber Piano possesses everything that can...

be wished for in a Piano. Geo. W. Morgan.

The Weber Piano ranks foremost among the best...

manufactured. William Mason.

"The Weber Piano stands first among the splendid...

Pianos produced in this country. Clara N. Brincherhoff.

A ten years' experience convinces me that the Weber...

Pianos are unsurpassable. John Zundel.

I would call special attention to

THE ESTY COTTAGE ORGAN

Beautifully finished in black walnut and...

rosewood, containing only six instruments...

any other in the world. Has taken more...

than one hundred and fifty gold medals...

and first premiums, at Paris and Exhibitions throughout the United States.

They are endorsed by the highest musical...

authorities.

Certainly the best I ever heard.

It is good, which is the highest praise that...

can be bestowed on any instrument. W. G. Morgan.

They are the best and most beautiful we have...

met with. O. J. Hill, Organ Builders, N. Y.

It is the best and most beautiful we have...

met with. Prof. E. L. Baker.

It contains six sweet and powerful tones in an...

unusual degree. Rev. Bishop Simpson, N. Y.

Church.

Language fails in adequacy to convey a...

fair idea of the perfectly enchanting power...

of this instrument. J. M. Potter.

Vastly superior to anything of the kind...

ever played upon. Wm. A. King.

The Esty Organ is without a superior.

Geo. Jarline, Organ Builder, N. Y.

No tremolo has yet been invented that...

will vary in pitch with this beautiful...

instrument. Wm. A. King.

It is not merely the fact, but it is the only...

mechanical reproduction of the human voice...

which has ever satisfied me. Rev. H. C. Dags,

President of Northern New York Musical Association.

J. M. POTTER, Norwalk.

T. E. & H. B. SMITH,

DEALERS IN

HARDWARE,

AND

Agricultural Implements.

WALL PAPER, WINDOW SHADES, PAINTS,

OILS, GLASS, SASH, BLINDS,

AND DOORS.

Main Street, Norwalk, Conn.

SIGN PAINTING, PAPER HANGING, &c.

HOLMAN'S

Fever and Ague and Liver Pad

CURES WITHOUT MEDICINE, SIMPLY

BY ABSORPTION.

The Best Liver Regulator in the World.

The only one known for the cure of...

DRUGS & MEDICINES

THE undersigned would announce to the citizens...

PURE DRUGS

Choice Wines & Liquors

FOR MEDICAL PURPOSES

FARMY & TOLL ANTISEPTIC MEDICINES

Physicians' Prescriptions carefully compounded...

W. M. POTTER, DEALER IN

PIANOS ORGANS,

MELODEONS,

Sheet Music, &c.,

Wall Street, Norwalk, Ct.

NEXT DOOR TO SAVIG'S BANK

I keep a large stock of instruments on hand...

SOLE AGENTS FOR THE CELEBRATED

WEBER P