

Gov. Ingersoll has gone to Saratoga. The berry crop is unusually good this season.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Blaser have been enjoying a visit to Saratoga. Mr. Luther T. Abbott, of West Meriden, is in town visiting friends.

Clapp Spooner, of Bridgeport, has taken out a patent for checker men. A white frost was reported in Dutchess County, New York, last Tuesday night.

Post Master General Jewell is supposed to have sailed on Saturday the 8th, for home. City Councilman Doly and wife are off on a trip to Saratoga, the White Mountains, etc.

Burgess William E. Dann and wife, left last evening for a few days' sojourn at Saratoga. Mr. Anthony Costock, and wife are spending part of the summer at Green's Farms.

The Hating business has opened fairly, but does not compare favorably with other seasons. Rev. Mr. Bentley has returned from his summer vacation and occupied his pulpit Sunday.

Dr. Samuel Lynde, wife and three children, Chas. Sherry Esq., and Geo. G. Bishop, Esq., and wife, are on Saturday of the present at the National Life Steamer Spain.

Twenty thousand water-melons arrived in New York, last Friday, from Virginia. What a deluge. The mansion of J. H. Wilcox, in Meriden, will be sold at auction on the 9th of September, with furniture.

The passenger Conductors of New England are going to Rocky Point on a clam taking frolic next Sunday. Cashier Miller is spending his vacation at his old home in Massachusetts, on the Vermont line, with his family.

John P. Beatty, Esq., is expected to sail for home on the 23d inst., arriving here about the first of September. The New York Circus was slily attended last Friday, both afternoon and evening. The performances were good.

Dr. Wm. A. Lockwood has returned home from his visit to Chicago and other places at the West, and resumed practice. The Fat men are preparing for their Thanksgiving day. Their clam bake comes off on the 27th inst., at Gregory's Point.

Mr. McDonan, who works the Marvin Farm, Down Town, sold a valuable horse, Saturday, caused by an over-fest of green corn. We are indebted to J. H. Benham, publisher, for a copy of his annual New Haven Directory, for 1874.

Gen. Cranford, goes with his troops to Niantic on the 24th. Mayor E. S. Cleveland is expected to be present and furnish music for the Regiment. Selician Andrew Selick went up to Chenoweth to see his American friend, who he was bitten on the leg by some bug or spider, in two places. It caused him but little pain at first, but soon began to inflame and the second and third day was terribly painful and swollen.

The annual excursion of Rev. Mr. Selick's School, to Long Island, came off on Thursday last. The fine schooner Forsyth, just returned from the Neptune cruise, was secured for the sail. Going over the wind was light and progress slow, but the return trip was fast enough to suit the most impatient. The excursion is reported by the pupils as very enjoyable.

The annual excursion of Rev. Mr. Selick's School, to Long Island, came off on Thursday last. The fine schooner Forsyth, just returned from the Neptune cruise, was secured for the sail. Going over the wind was light and progress slow, but the return trip was fast enough to suit the most impatient. The excursion is reported by the pupils as very enjoyable.

Collector Camp contemplates leaving up to Chenoweth in the course of a few days for the purpose of realizing the tax assessed upon that property by the Borough. Special meeting of the County Agricultural Society, in the Town Hall, August 23d, to appoint Committees to arrange for the coming Fair. An important meeting, it not hardship to many.

At all events, there is a reasonable doubt, which, it appears, is given to Burgess, tax-payers, by the Court. It would seem that the tax-payers who are released from their tax obligations by the first day of September. The tax-payers have it hard enough with all the indulgence that can reasonably be shown.

Collector Camp has been successful in realizing that may one year's uncollected taxes. He had collected $20,470, up to the 1st inst., out of a total of $27,000. A fine photograph of the Norwalk Neptune Club, taken by C. H. Shurtz, Esq., of Edgartown, was left with us. The picture is remarkably good and does not exhibit any traces of the fearful sickness said to have broken out among the gay and festive party while voyaging down there. Even "Ed" Keeler sits as upright as though he had never thrown boots and umbrellas all overhead in his violent mood while Fred Mead sprang himself over the side with undiminished vigor.

Dr. Ule looks as though he had seen active service and still had an eye to business. We also observe that friend Arthur Osborn seems struggling out from behind Mead and Taylor with an expression which plainly says, "You can't see me." The motion has taken me retreat abreast the steep ascent and cast as satisfied an eye over his "happy family" abreast of him, as Brigham Young may be presumed to do when he takes his household out for a picnic. We miss the faces of all the Divinity and Law and also the manufacturer who left with the party. The general look of our party, as it is, is a good one. The Postmaster's non-appearance, for being a sick man, may have been "blinding" under a blank kerf, at the time. The others being all married men, and as men leaving wives at home are never known to indulge in "bluff"—we should like to have the omission of such important features from the picture accounted for. No time should be lost in clearing up this mystery.

We are glad to learn that the apprehension felt by the club lest some of its members may have been involved in the fatal tarring and feathering fracas, were groundless. It all grew out of the fact that a very few of the boys got too fast and satisfactory accounts of their absences that Friday Saturday night.

Residents on Main street, especially those in the vicinity of the Norwalk Vineyard, are doing very well. The other ten thousand dollars in premiums, and invite all to compete. Their premium lists may be obtained by applying to the Secretary. See adv. elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Lineburg are at Saratoga. Miss Annie Hill is at Lockport, N. Y., visiting friends.

E. V. A. Childerster and family are at Litchfield Hill. Mike Noonan, Esq., now occupies pallial Ekeonworth.

Rev. Mr. Bentley will preach a sermon next Sunday evening especially designed for the young. Mr. Langdon shows the noblest four-in-hand team and turn-out of any that ever visited Norwalk.

The New York Yacht Club sailed or drifted up the Sound last Thursday, bound east on their annual cruise. We learn there was something "werry like a sly," as Sam Weller would say, on Flax Hill, Sunday evening.

Collector A. H. Camp, is down with the chills and fever. This "tax gathering raid" seems to have done too many for him. Our thanks are due to Mr. Geo. Beatty for a supply of excellent eating apples of three or four early varieties, raised on his place.

The Norwalk river rose to an unprecedented August height Sunday, from the flooding rains of the previous forty-eight hours. Letters received from our Norwalk boys, who sailed last month for Europe in the Idaho, state they had an unexpectantly smooth and sunny voyage throughout. They are now "doing" Germany, and the Rhine.

Over fifty yachts of the Eastern, the New York, the Brooklyn and the Atlantic yacht clubs are in Newport harbor. The Eastern Yacht club have generally accepted the invitation of the New York club to join in the handicap race on Tuesday.

Rev. C. J. Selick contemplates constructing a train from his premises down into the harbor. This would certainly ensure the healthfulness of many other residents who are to join with him and make a general sewer to tide water.

The Neptune club arrived home on Wednesday afternoon, having had a good voyage, and favorable winds blowing nearly the entire trip. Our correspondent, in two letters in today's paper, tells the story of the cruise, and his lively epistles will be found very interesting.

Every one who has occasion to traverse Bridge avenue will be glad to learn that the favorable winds blowing nearly the entire trip. Our correspondent, in two letters in today's paper, tells the story of the cruise, and his lively epistles will be found very interesting.

Here is a specimen of the news served up in the Danbury paper by its Norwalk correspondent. "On Friday last, members of our Brother Lodge, numbering about 150, went by excursion to New York for the purpose of attending Barnum's sale of pictures, and returned much gratified with their visit."

We are indebted to J. H. Benham, publisher, for a copy of his annual New Haven Directory, for 1874. It is replete with local information, bristling with attractive advertisements of all kinds, and a comprehensive record of city real estate. Its typography is clear and neat, as is everything emanating from Benham's Printing Establishment.

Selician Andrew Selick went up to Chenoweth to see his American friend, who he was bitten on the leg by some bug or spider, in two places. It caused him but little pain at first, but soon began to inflame and the second and third day was terribly painful and swollen. He is now much better and all fears of the hydrophobia are dispelled.

The annual excursion of Rev. Mr. Selick's School, to Long Island, came off on Thursday last. The fine schooner Forsyth, just returned from the Neptune cruise, was secured for the sail. Going over the wind was light and progress slow, but the return trip was fast enough to suit the most impatient. The excursion is reported by the pupils as very enjoyable.

The annual excursion of Rev. Mr. Selick's School, to Long Island, came off on Thursday last. The fine schooner Forsyth, just returned from the Neptune cruise, was secured for the sail. Going over the wind was light and progress slow, but the return trip was fast enough to suit the most impatient. The excursion is reported by the pupils as very enjoyable.

The annual excursion of Rev. Mr. Selick's School, to Long Island, came off on Thursday last. The fine schooner Forsyth, just returned from the Neptune cruise, was secured for the sail. Going over the wind was light and progress slow, but the return trip was fast enough to suit the most impatient. The excursion is reported by the pupils as very enjoyable.

The annual excursion of Rev. Mr. Selick's School, to Long Island, came off on Thursday last. The fine schooner Forsyth, just returned from the Neptune cruise, was secured for the sail. Going over the wind was light and progress slow, but the return trip was fast enough to suit the most impatient. The excursion is reported by the pupils as very enjoyable.

The annual excursion of Rev. Mr. Selick's School, to Long Island, came off on Thursday last. The fine schooner Forsyth, just returned from the Neptune cruise, was secured for the sail. Going over the wind was light and progress slow, but the return trip was fast enough to suit the most impatient. The excursion is reported by the pupils as very enjoyable.

The annual excursion of Rev. Mr. Selick's School, to Long Island, came off on Thursday last. The fine schooner Forsyth, just returned from the Neptune cruise, was secured for the sail. Going over the wind was light and progress slow, but the return trip was fast enough to suit the most impatient. The excursion is reported by the pupils as very enjoyable.

The annual excursion of Rev. Mr. Selick's School, to Long Island, came off on Thursday last. The fine schooner Forsyth, just returned from the Neptune cruise, was secured for the sail. Going over the wind was light and progress slow, but the return trip was fast enough to suit the most impatient. The excursion is reported by the pupils as very enjoyable.

The annual excursion of Rev. Mr. Selick's School, to Long Island, came off on Thursday last. The fine schooner Forsyth, just returned from the Neptune cruise, was secured for the sail. Going over the wind was light and progress slow, but the return trip was fast enough to suit the most impatient. The excursion is reported by the pupils as very enjoyable.

The annual excursion of Rev. Mr. Selick's School, to Long Island, came off on Thursday last. The fine schooner Forsyth, just returned from the Neptune cruise, was secured for the sail. Going over the wind was light and progress slow, but the return trip was fast enough to suit the most impatient. The excursion is reported by the pupils as very enjoyable.

The annual excursion of Rev. Mr. Selick's School, to Long Island, came off on Thursday last. The fine schooner Forsyth, just returned from the Neptune cruise, was secured for the sail. Going over the wind was light and progress slow, but the return trip was fast enough to suit the most impatient. The excursion is reported by the pupils as very enjoyable.

The annual excursion of Rev. Mr. Selick's School, to Long Island, came off on Thursday last. The fine schooner Forsyth, just returned from the Neptune cruise, was secured for the sail. Going over the wind was light and progress slow, but the return trip was fast enough to suit the most impatient. The excursion is reported by the pupils as very enjoyable.

The annual excursion of Rev. Mr. Selick's School, to Long Island, came off on Thursday last. The fine schooner Forsyth, just returned from the Neptune cruise, was secured for the sail. Going over the wind was light and progress slow, but the return trip was fast enough to suit the most impatient. The excursion is reported by the pupils as very enjoyable.

The annual excursion of Rev. Mr. Selick's School, to Long Island, came off on Thursday last. The fine schooner Forsyth, just returned from the Neptune cruise, was secured for the sail. Going over the wind was light and progress slow, but the return trip was fast enough to suit the most impatient. The excursion is reported by the pupils as very enjoyable.

The annual excursion of Rev. Mr. Selick's School, to Long Island, came off on Thursday last. The fine schooner Forsyth, just returned from the Neptune cruise, was secured for the sail. Going over the wind was light and progress slow, but the return trip was fast enough to suit the most impatient. The excursion is reported by the pupils as very enjoyable.

The annual excursion of Rev. Mr. Selick's School, to Long Island, came off on Thursday last. The fine schooner Forsyth, just returned from the Neptune cruise, was secured for the sail. Going over the wind was light and progress slow, but the return trip was fast enough to suit the most impatient. The excursion is reported by the pupils as very enjoyable.

The annual excursion of Rev. Mr. Selick's School, to Long Island, came off on Thursday last. The fine schooner Forsyth, just returned from the Neptune cruise, was secured for the sail. Going over the wind was light and progress slow, but the return trip was fast enough to suit the most impatient. The excursion is reported by the pupils as very enjoyable.

The annual excursion of Rev. Mr. Selick's School, to Long Island, came off on Thursday last. The fine schooner Forsyth, just returned from the Neptune cruise, was secured for the sail. Going over the wind was light and progress slow, but the return trip was fast enough to suit the most impatient. The excursion is reported by the pupils as very enjoyable.

The annual excursion of Rev. Mr. Selick's School, to Long Island, came off on Thursday last. The fine schooner Forsyth, just returned from the Neptune cruise, was secured for the sail. Going over the wind was light and progress slow, but the return trip was fast enough to suit the most impatient. The excursion is reported by the pupils as very enjoyable.

The annual excursion of Rev. Mr. Selick's School, to Long Island, came off on Thursday last. The fine schooner Forsyth, just returned from the Neptune cruise, was secured for the sail. Going over the wind was light and progress slow, but the return trip was fast enough to suit the most impatient. The excursion is reported by the pupils as very enjoyable.

DEAR GAZETTE.—I am sorry that my letter from the Vineyard did not reach you in time for Monday's paper; but now you do me to condense into a short note the many contents of the four remaining days of the cruise. On Monday morning, the Capt. Allen preached a first-rate sermon in the pretty little chapel; "Sam" Spinning, of Bridgeport, who met us at the "Bluffs," leading the singing, and our organist presiding at the organ. The boys seemed to think we could take charge of anything, and "run" it satisfactorily, and certainly it seems so, when one reflects on the many trades and professions represented in the Neptune Club. On Monday we scattered, as usual, preparing to say good-bye; but we desired to leave pleasant memories behind us, so a concert was hastily organized for the evening, under the direction of Mr. Spinning. We had fallen in with a quintette of gentlemen from Andover, Mass., who they don't belong to the Club, ought to, and doubtless they assisted us materially with the singing, and the concert was given in the large parlor of the Sea View House. Dr. Allen and Mr. Gibson contributed piano solos. After this, almost the whole party repaired to the cottage of Mr. Spinning, on Clinton Avenue, where, it was estimated, these thousand people were gathered. The cottages were illuminated with Chinese lanterns. After this, almost the whole party repaired to the cottage of Mr. Spinning, on Clinton Avenue, where, it was estimated, these thousand people were gathered. The cottages were illuminated with Chinese lanterns. After this, almost the whole party repaired to the cottage of Mr. Spinning, on Clinton Avenue, where, it was estimated, these thousand people were gathered. The cottages were illuminated with Chinese lanterns.

What difference is there between this and what our forefathers kicked against so hard almost a hundred years before America was a nation. The Sovereigns before those days for money sold the exclusive rights to make and sell their trade, but then a bid once accepted becomes a monopoly to the trader whose offer has been accepted. "What difference is there between this and what our forefathers kicked against so hard almost a hundred years before America was a nation. The Sovereigns before those days for money sold the exclusive rights to make and sell their trade, but then a bid once accepted becomes a monopoly to the trader whose offer has been accepted. "What difference is there between this and what our forefathers kicked against so hard almost a hundred years before America was a nation. The Sovereigns before those days for money sold the exclusive rights to make and sell their trade, but then a bid once accepted becomes a monopoly to the trader whose offer has been accepted."

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

Another of our aged and most upright and worthy citizens has departed. Wm. Marvin, long a resident of Norwalk, died on Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at the residence of his wife, Mrs. J. H. Marvin, in the city of New Haven. He had announced that he would preach in the evening on "Woman's Mission in the Church." It got about his subject was in the interest of the crusaders, and the unfamiliar faces of quite a number of the "old guard" were observed at church, eager to hear what should be said, and that should endanger their lip, but all such were disappointed, as he preached on able discourse on another subject.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE. Mr. Editor. Dear Sir.—A new order has arisen in these latter days which calls itself the order of the "Sovereigns of Industry" whose professed object is to reduce the prices of all articles of household and personal consumption to the very lowest bid possible. This they propose to do by doing away with the right of property in the land, and by an ingenious plan to procure money for the Missionary cause, inscribing upon it with a "I was once the horn of an ox."

Mr. Editor. Dear Sir.—A new order has arisen in these latter days which calls itself the order of the "Sovereigns of Industry" whose professed object is to reduce the prices of all articles of household and personal consumption to the very lowest bid possible. This they propose to do by doing away with the right of property in the land, and by an ingenious plan to procure money for the Missionary cause, inscribing upon it with a "I was once the horn of an ox."

Mr. Editor. Dear Sir.—A new order has arisen in these latter days which calls itself the order of the "Sovereigns of Industry" whose professed object is to reduce the prices of all articles of household and personal consumption to the very lowest bid possible. This they propose to do by doing away with the right of property in the land, and by an ingenious plan to procure money for the Missionary cause, inscribing upon it with a "I was once the horn of an ox."

Mr. Editor. Dear Sir.—A new order has arisen in these latter days which calls itself the order of the "Sovereigns of Industry" whose professed object is to reduce the prices of all articles of household and personal consumption to the very lowest bid possible. This they propose to do by doing away with the right of property in the land, and by an ingenious plan to procure money for the Missionary cause, inscribing upon it with a "I was once the horn of an ox."

Mr. Editor. Dear Sir.—A new order has arisen in these latter days which calls itself the order of the "Sovereigns of Industry" whose professed object is to reduce the prices of all articles of household and personal consumption to the very lowest bid possible. This they propose to do by doing away with the right of property in the land, and by an ingenious plan to procure money for the Missionary cause, inscribing upon it with a "I was once the horn of an ox."

Mr. Editor. Dear Sir.—A new order has arisen in these latter days which calls itself the order of the "Sovereigns of Industry" whose professed object is to reduce the prices of all articles of household and personal consumption to the very lowest bid possible. This they propose to do by doing away with the right of property in the land, and by an ingenious plan to procure money for the Missionary cause, inscribing upon it with a "I was once the horn of an ox."

Mr. Editor. Dear Sir.—A new order has arisen in these latter days which calls itself the order of the "Sovereigns of Industry" whose professed object is to reduce the prices of all articles of household and personal consumption to the very lowest bid possible. This they propose to do by doing away with the right of property in the land, and by an ingenious plan to procure money for the Missionary cause, inscribing upon it with a "I was once the horn of an ox."

Mr. Editor. Dear Sir.—A new order has arisen in these latter days which calls itself the order of the "Sovereigns of Industry" whose professed object is to reduce the prices of all articles of household and personal consumption to the very lowest bid possible. This they propose to do by doing away with the right of property in the land, and by an ingenious plan to procure money for the Missionary cause, inscribing upon it with a "I was once the horn of an ox."

Mr. Editor. Dear Sir.—A new order has arisen in these latter days which calls itself the order of the "Sovereigns of Industry" whose

[Published by Authority.]

House Bill No. 112—CHAPTER XVII.

An act in addition to an act entitled "An act relative to Courts of Probate."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened: Sec. 1. That any person of full age...

House Bill No. 113—CHAPTER XVII.

An act in addition to an act entitled "An act relative to Courts of Probate."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened: Sec. 1. That any person of full age...

House Bill No. 114—CHAPTER XVII.

An act in addition to an act entitled "An act relative to Courts of Probate."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened: Sec. 1. That any person of full age...

House Bill No. 115—CHAPTER XVII.

An act in addition to an act entitled "An act relative to Courts of Probate."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened: Sec. 1. That any person of full age...

House Bill No. 116—CHAPTER XVII.

An act in addition to an act entitled "An act relative to Courts of Probate."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened: Sec. 1. That any person of full age...

House Bill No. 117—CHAPTER XVII.

An act in addition to an act entitled "An act relative to Courts of Probate."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened: Sec. 1. That any person of full age...

House Bill No. 118—CHAPTER XVII.

An act in addition to an act entitled "An act relative to Courts of Probate."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened: Sec. 1. That any person of full age...

House Bill No. 119—CHAPTER XVII.

An act in addition to an act entitled "An act relative to Courts of Probate."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened: Sec. 1. That any person of full age...

House Bill No. 120—CHAPTER XVII.

An act in addition to an act entitled "An act relative to Courts of Probate."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened: Sec. 1. That any person of full age...

House Bill No. 121—CHAPTER XVII.

An act in addition to an act entitled "An act relative to Courts of Probate."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened: Sec. 1. That any person of full age...

House Bill No. 122—CHAPTER XVII.

An act in addition to an act entitled "An act relative to Courts of Probate."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened: Sec. 1. That any person of full age...

House Bill No. 123—CHAPTER XVII.

An act in addition to an act entitled "An act relative to Courts of Probate."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened: Sec. 1. That any person of full age...

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Approved July 25, 1874.

[House Bill No. 188]—CHAPTER XXXII.

An act protecting the Mill River and Mill Pond...

House Bill No. 189—CHAPTER XXXII.

An act protecting the Mill River and Mill Pond...

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened: Sec. 1. That any person...

House Bill No. 190—CHAPTER XXXII.

An act protecting the Mill River and Mill Pond...

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened: Sec. 1. That any person...

House Bill No. 191—CHAPTER XXXII.

An act protecting the Mill River and Mill Pond...

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened: Sec. 1. That any person...

House Bill No. 192—CHAPTER XXXII.

An act protecting the Mill River and Mill Pond...

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened: Sec. 1. That any person...

House Bill No. 193—CHAPTER XXXII.

An act protecting the Mill River and Mill Pond...

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened: Sec. 1. That any person...

House Bill No. 194—CHAPTER XXXII.

An act protecting the Mill River and Mill Pond...

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened: Sec. 1. That any person...

House Bill No. 195—CHAPTER XXXII.

An act protecting the Mill River and Mill Pond...

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened: Sec. 1. That any person...

House Bill No. 196—CHAPTER XXXII.

An act protecting the Mill River and Mill Pond...

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened: Sec. 1. That any person...

House Bill No. 197—CHAPTER XXXII.

An act protecting the Mill River and Mill Pond...

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened: Sec. 1. That any person...

House Bill No. 198—CHAPTER XXXII.

An act protecting the Mill River and Mill Pond...

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened: Sec. 1. That any person...

House Bill No. 199—CHAPTER XXXII.

An act protecting the Mill River and Mill Pond...

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened: Sec. 1. That any person...

House Bill No. 200—CHAPTER XXXII.

An act protecting the Mill River and Mill Pond...

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened: Sec. 1. That any person...

THE SELZER

A Household without Tartan's Selzer...

RICH FARMING LANDS

Now for Sale Very Cheap.

Send for "THE PIONEER"

A handsome illustrated...

WANTED—Agents for Glass Burens

By Gen. N. P. Banks, Chief Engineer...

TEN PER CENT NET

The Iowa Loan and Trust Company...

THE LADIES' GARMENT SUSPENDER

Manufactured and sold by...

LATEST IMPROVED HORSE POWERS

GRAIN THRESHING AND WOOD SAWING MACHINES.

THE LADIES' GARMENT SUSPENDER

Manufactured and sold by...

WATERS' CONCERTO ORGANS

are the most perfect...

PLUMBING & PLUMBING

HANSON engaged the services of B. L. M.

THE "FISH POOL"

Will be opened on Wednesday, Feb. 18th...

FISH, GLAMS AND OYSTERS

can be found, also FRUIT AND VEGETABLES...

SOMETHING NEW!

Norwalk Novelty Works.

IRON, STEEL, BRASS, OR WOOD

STEAM, WATER & GAS FITTING.

INSIDE FIGURES

and consequently can sell at much lower prices...

DR. FLINT'S QUAKER BITTERS

These celebrated Bitters are composed...

IRON CLAD PAINTS

These colors are of a nature made them...

SOMETHING NEW

DENTAL SCIENCE!

IRON CLAD PAINTS

These colors are of a nature made them...

SOMETHING NEW

DENTAL SCIENCE!

IRON CLAD PAINTS

These colors are of a nature made them...

SOMETHING NEW

DENTAL SCIENCE!

IRON CLAD PAINTS

These colors are of a nature made them...

SOMETHING NEW

DENTAL SCIENCE!

IRON CLAD PAINTS

These colors are of a nature made them...

SOMETHING NEW

DENTAL SCIENCE!

IRON CLAD PAINTS

These colors are of a nature made them...

SOMETHING NEW

DENTAL SCIENCE!

IRON CLAD PAINTS

These colors are of a nature made them...

SOMETHING NEW

DENTAL SCIENCE!

IRON CLAD PAINTS

These colors are of a nature made them...

SOMETHING NEW

DENTAL SCIENCE!

IRON CLAD PAINTS

These colors are of a nature made them...

SOMETHING NEW

DENTAL SCIENCE!

IRON CLAD PAINTS

These colors are of a nature made them...

SOMETHING NEW

DENTAL SCIENCE!

IRON CLAD PAINTS

These colors are of a nature made them...

SOMETHING NEW

DENTAL SCIENCE!

WILLIAM C. STREET

Wholesale and Retail Dealer in

HARDWARE

IRON, STEEL, MECHANICAL TOOLS, AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS, CARRIAGE BODIES, WHEELS, RIMS, SHAPTS, HUBS AXLES, SPRINGS, BOLTS, NUTS, BRASS, DOORS, PAINTS, OILS, GLASS, VARNISH, &c.

FAIRFIELD FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY

South Norwalk, Conn.

Cash Capital, $200,000 Assets, 1, July 1873, $302,924.35

SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT LUMBER MARKET

LEWIS HUBBELL, & CO.

Timber, Lumber, Shingles, Lath, Builders' Hardware, &c.

W. H. SWORDS, MERCHANT TAILOR

CORNER WASHINGTON AND MAIN STS. SOUTH NORWALK, CONN.

GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS

Of all Shades and Colors, of the Best Quality.

CAMPHORINE

It is a universal household remedy...

H. M. & C. S. PROWITT, DRUGGISTS

NORWALK, CONN.

WIRE DISH COVERS

ALICE K. LOCKWOOD'S

IRON, STEEL, BRASS, OR WOOD

STEAM, WATER & GAS FITTING.

INSIDE FIGURES

and consequently can sell at much lower prices...

DR. FLINT'S QUAKER BITTERS

These celebrated Bitters are composed...

IRON CLAD PAINTS

These colors are of a nature made them...

SOMETHING NEW

DENTAL SCIENCE!

IRON CLAD PAINTS

These colors are of a nature made them...

SOMETHING NEW

DENTAL SCIENCE!

IRON CLAD PAINTS

These colors are of a nature made them...

SOMETHING NEW

DENTAL SCIENCE!

IRON CLAD PAINTS

These colors are of a nature made them...

SOMETHING NEW

DENTAL SCIENCE!

IRON CLAD PAINTS

These colors are of a nature made them...

SOMETHING NEW

DENTAL SCIENCE!

IRON CLAD PAINTS

These colors are of a nature made them...

SOMETHING NEW

DENTAL SCIENCE!

IRON CLAD PAINTS

These colors are of a nature made them...

SOMETHING NEW

DENTAL SCIENCE!

IRON CLAD PAINTS

These colors are of a nature made them...

SOMETHING NEW

DENTAL SCIENCE!

IRON CLAD PAINTS

These colors are of a nature made them...

SOMETHING NEW

DENTAL SCIENCE!

IRON CLAD PAINTS

These colors are of a nature made them...

SOMETHING NEW

DENTAL SCIENCE!

IRON CLAD PAINTS

These colors are of a nature made them...

SOMETHING NEW

DENTAL SCIENCE!

IRON CLAD PAINTS

These colors are of a nature made them...

SOMETHING NEW

DENTAL SCIENCE!

IRON CLAD PAINTS

These colors are of a nature made them...

CONVEYANCES.

TO NEW YORK & BACK FOR $1.00!

THE SPLENDID AND FAVORITE STEAMER.

Nelly White, Capt. C. WILDMAN.

Will leave South Norwalk, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave New York, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave South Norwalk, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave New York, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave South Norwalk, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave New York, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave South Norwalk, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave New York, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave South Norwalk, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave New York, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave South Norwalk, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave New York, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave South Norwalk, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave New York, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave South Norwalk, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave New York, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave South Norwalk, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave New York, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave South Norwalk, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave New York, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave South Norwalk, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave New York, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave South Norwalk, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave New York, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave South Norwalk, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave New York, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave South Norwalk, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave New York, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave South Norwalk, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave New York, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave South Norwalk, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave New York, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave South Norwalk, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave New York, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave South Norwalk, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave New York, every week day at 7:30 a.m.

Will leave South Norwalk, every week day at 7:30 a.m.